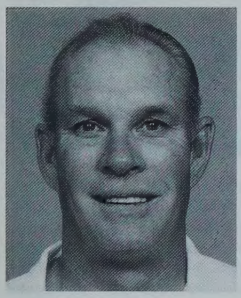
In Memory of Chip Myers



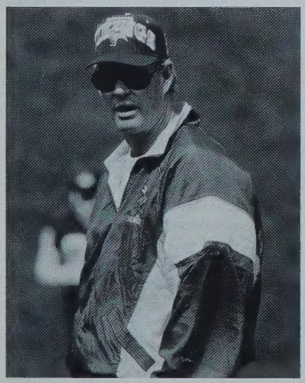
July 9, 1945 – February 23, 1999

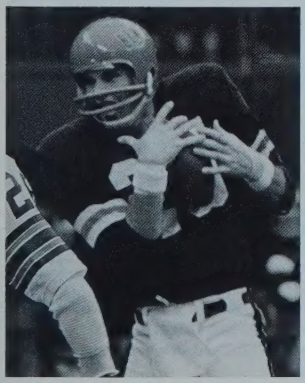
The Minnesota Vikings and the National Football League were saddened by the untimely death of offensive coordinator Chip Myers. A former Pro Bowl receiver for the Cincinnati Bengals, Chip spent four seasons on the Viking coaching staff working with the receivers and quarterbacks, earning the respect and friendship of everyone in the organization.

Chip's passions included family, football and fishing. He found fishing the perfect release from the stress of the day and was at home on the water. Chip will be missed by players, staff and fans around the League. Chip is survived by his wife, Susie, and five children.

Myers' Career at a Glance

Receiver: Northwestern Oklahoma, 1964-66...Pro Receiver: San Francisco 49ers, 1967; Cincinnati Bengals, 1969-76...College Coach: Illinois, 1980-82...Pro Coach: Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 1983-84; Indianapolis Colts, 1985-88; New York Jets, 1990-93; New Orleans Saints, 1994; Minnesota Vikings, 1995-98.





GONE FISHIN'

Of course, now I am too old to be much of a fisherman, and now of course I usually fish the big waters alone, although some friends think I shouldn't. Like many fly fishermen in western Montana where the summer days are almost Arctic in length, I often do not start fishing until the cool of the evening. Then in the Arctic half-light of the canyon, all existence fades to a being with the soul and memories and the sounds of the Big Blackfoot River and a four-count rhythm and the hope that a fish will rise.

Eventually, all things merge into one, and a river runs through it. The river was cut by the world's great flood and runs over the rocks from the basement of time. On some of the rocks are timeless raindrops. Under the rocks are the works and some of the words are theirs.

I am haunted by waters.

A River Runs Through It, Norman McLean

Red McCombs

OWNER

In Billy Joe "Red" McCombs' magical first season with the Vikings, the club set new records on the field by going 15-1 and new records off the field with the highest attendance in team history with an average of 63,843 fans per game.

McCombs restored "Purple Pride" to the community and to the football team as he watched the team advance to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. The pride in the organization was restored with the Metrodome becoming the loudest and most feared stadium in which to play in the NFL. The Vikings handed out free "Purple Pride" towels as a show of appreciation to the fans. McCombs received FOX's Terry Bradshaw Award as the Owner of the Year and he also became the first owner to receive a turkey leg from John Madden following the Thanksgiving Day victory over the Cowboys (11/26/98) in his native state. Red helped develop a front office that received Pro Football Weekly's Executive of the Year Award. He enters his second season in the NFL with a wealth of previous successful experiences in the sports field.

McCombs brought the Spurs from Dallas to San Antonio in 1973 and sold his interests in the team to his partners in 1982. He purchased the Denver Nuggets in 1982 and sold the team in 1986. In 1988 McCombs bought all the partners interests in the Spurs and become the sole owner along with Gary Woods through the 1992-93 campaign.

In McCombs' final four seasons as the owner of the Spurs the team went 207-121 (.631) and finished first twice and second twice in the Midwest Division of the NBA's Western Conference. The team had the biggest turnaround in NBA history between two seasons. The club's attendance figures nearly doubled in his five seasons with the club (8,462 in the season before he arrived in 1987-88 vs. 16,057 in a sold out situation in his final season in 1992-93). In his final season with the Nuggets in 1984-85 the club finished 52-30 (.634) and advanced to the Western Conference Finals. McCombs got his first taste of sports ownership in 1951 with midget auto racing on a quarter-mile track. In 1953 he owned the Corpus Christi Clippers of the Class B Big State Baseball League.

McCombs was born in Spur, Texas in 1927. He attended Southwestern University and played football there before enrolling in law school at the University of Texas at Austin, where he is a Distinguished Alumnus. McCombs moved to Corpus Christi to enter into the automobile industry in 1950 and has been involved in the field ever since. McCombs was awarded his first new vehicle franchise and became the youngest Edsel dealer in the United States in 1957 at age 30. In 1958 he relocated to San Antonio where he became successively General Manager, Partner and sole owner of Red McCombs Ford. In 1996, McCombs was inducted into the Automotive Hall of Fame with its Distinguished Service Citation, the most prestigious award given in the automobile industry. In 1997 McCombs Enterprises was rated as the sixth largest automobile dealership group in the United States.

McCombs and an associate, Lowry Mays, formed Clear Channel Communications in 1972. Clear Channel is the world's largest outdoor advertising company with operations in 26 countries and the world's second largest radio station owner with 626 stations. Clear Channel also owns or operates 22 television stations, including the Twin Cities FOX affiliate (WFTC-TV, Channel 29) which broadcasts most Vikings games. Clear Channel's stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. McCombs is also the sole owner of McCombs Oil Corporation located in Houston, Texas.

McCombs has been a resident of San Antonio since 1958. He has had many leadership roles, including Chairman of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce and the United Way. McCombs has also served leadership roles in many national, state and local organizations including San Antonio's World Fair, HemisFair. He currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Southwestern University where he has been honored as a Distinguished Alumnus and is past Chairman of the Board of Visitors of University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. McCombs has chaired many fund drives and community service organizations. He has been honored with numerous recognitions including the San Antonio Citizenship Award, inducted into the San Antonio Business Hall of Fame and inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in November 1998 and named Minnesota Business and Opportunities Magazine Man of the Year.

McCombs has also received many sports related awards including induction into the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame (1998), Best Athletic Supporter, Longhorn of the Year, Sportsman of the Year by the San Antonio Express-News and the Sportsman Award for Outstanding Leadership.

McCombs' hobbies include collecting Western historical artifacts. McCombs has been an active booster of the University of Texas for many years and served as President of the Texas Longhorn Club. In 1997 he and his wife, Charline, donated $3 million to the University of Texas' Women's Athletic Department. A year earlier they gave $6 million to his alma mater, Southwestern University, the largest gift ever given by an alumnus. Red and Charline made numerous visits to local charities and schools in the Twin Cities with players including Cris Carter, Korey Stringer, Andrew Glover and Dwayne Rudd. Red and Charline donated $100,000 to the University of Minnesota Women's Athletics Department and also co-hosted the "Texas Tuxedo" fundraising event (for the U of M Women's Athletics) which raised over $300,000.

McCombs married the former Charline Hamblin in Corpus Christi, Texas in 1950. The couple and their three daughters, Lynda, Marsha, Connie and eight grandchildren reside in San Antonio.

Charline McCombs

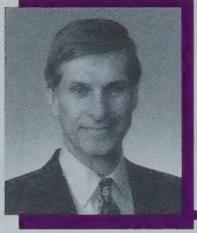
OWNER

Charline Hamblin McCombs is a lady of passions with her latest being the Minnesota Vikings. Every Viking player and coach is a big part of her daily life. Charline's other passions include the arts, education and her family. Charline's gift for minority women to Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas (her alma mater) kicked off a statewide program. She is involved as a mentor at a San Antonio elementary school with her husband, Red McCombs, and stays actively involved with her eight grandchildren's school and extracurricular activities. Charline is very proud of her "Mother of the Year" award from the Advance organization. She has also received a number of other awards: Boystown "Spirit of Youth" Award, University of Texas School of Architecture and Design Award (with Joci Strauss), National Society of Fundraising Executives "Outstanding Philanthropist Award", Fashion Group International honoree, The Freedom of Information Foundation "Civic Virtue" Award and Non-Profit Resource Center "Spirit of Philanthropy" Award. Charline has also received an honorary Doctorate of Humanities from Southwestern University. She continues to serve on a number of boards in a variety of capacities.

Charline has been recognized by several local, state and national programs for her work in philanthropy and service. Charline's concern with promoting the arts in San Antonio included San Antonio's Theater Arts District being totally revitalized and restored, paving the way for future development downtown. She serves on the Board of Directors of Las Casas Foundation, which is dedicated to restoring and preserving downtown San Antonio treasures, i.e., The Majestic Theater and The Empire Theater, which carries her name. She has long been involved in cancer research and awareness programs, having served on the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Board. Charline is currently on their National Advisory Board. She served locally on the Board of the Cancer Center Council, which is the fund-raising, supportive arm of the Cancer Therapy and Research Center. Charline has had a longtime, ongoing relationship with the American Heart Association, having received their coveted Heart of Gold Award. Charline is currently serving on the Advisory Board of that organization. Charline is on the Board of Directors of the McNay Art Museum and serves on the Art Committee and the Education Committee.

Charline married Red McCombs in Corpus Christi, Texas in 1950. The couple and their three daughters, Lynda, Marsha, Connie and eight grandchildren, Carson, Charles, Sita, Anna, Ian, Chloe, Joseph, and Easton reside in San Antonio.

The McCombs family celebrates Thanksgiving 1999 at Texas Stadium watching the Vikings' win over the Cowboys.



Gary Woods

PRESIDENT

In just one season with the Vikings, Gary Woods has directed the club in new directions that were once thought never possible. The Vikings set an attendance record in 1998 with an average of 63,843 fans per game. Behind the direction of Woods, the Vikings also had a record year for corporate sponsorships, suite sales and novelty sales. For the 1999 season, the Vikings have increased their season ticket base by over 16,000 seats (60,000 in '99 vs. 43,472 in '98). In his first season with the Vikings in 1998 the team set a club record with a 15-1 record and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987.

Woods was named to his current position July 28, 1998 when the National Football League unanimously approved the new ownership of the Vikings. He has been associated with Vikings owner Red McCombs for the last 21 years.

Since 1979 Woods has been the President of McCombs Enterprises, the holding entity for the McCombs family investments. The company headquarters are based in San Antonio and include automobile dealerships, oil and gas exploration, real estate investments, broadcasting, ranching and others.

Woods is involved in numerous professional organizations and societies and regularly attends seminars in those disciplines as a student and an instructor. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Ilex Oncology Inc. and the Cancer Therapy and Research Center.

Woods served as the President of the San Antonio Spurs of the NBA from 1988 to 1993. While with the Spurs, he helped direct the club to two first place finishes and two second place finishes in the Midwest Division of the Western Conference. In October of 1988 he moved into an ownership position with the club with a 15 percent share of the team. Woods was active in the Spurs' marketing programs and the development of the not-for-profit Spurs Foundation, the team's charitable arm.

In his five seasons with the club, Woods helped the team's attendance figures nearly double (8,462 in the season before he arrived in 1987-88 vs. 16,057 in a sold out situation in his final season in 1992-93).

Woods is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University (BBA) and Southern Methodist University (MBA). He has pursued doctoral studies at North Texas State University and has completed the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School. Woods is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a certificate in data processing.

From 1965-70, Woods held several accounting and financial management positions in the Dallas corporate offices of Texas Instruments. In 1971, he moved to San Antonio as the chief financial officer for Associated Milk Producers. It was during his four years at AMPI that Woods became associated with McCombs and his varied business holdings. From 1975-78 he worked as chief financial officer at Wainoco Oil Corporation in Houston.

Woods, born in Lockhart, Texas in 1943, and his wife Glenda have a son, Mark, and a daughter, Kristin.

Viking President Gary Woods and Executive Vice President & General Manager Tim Connolly oversaw a 1998 Viking team that set records on the field and shattered attendance records at the Metrodome.

Tim Connolly

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Long-time football executive Tim Connolly joined the Vikings on October 16, 1998 as the team's Executive Vice President and General Manager and has been instrumental in the resurgence of the team's business presence and its community involvement. Connolly's responsibilities including directing the day-to-day operations of the club as well as spearheading the effort for a new home for the Vikings.

In his eight years of working in a managerial role in the National Football League, seven with the Kansas City Chiefs (1989-95), Connolly has been with successful teams that have posted an 87-40-1 record (.686) on the field. Helped by a record-breaking 15-1 season in 1998, the Vikings enter the 1999 campaign with the most season-ticket holders in the club's 39-year history. Season ticket sales for 1999 were capped at 60,000 and football excitement in the Metrodome has never been higher. The Vikings increased their season-ticket base by over 16,000 in one season (60,000 in '99 vs. 43,472 in '98) and set a franchise attendance record in 1998, drawing 510,741 fans to the Metrodome in the regular season, an average of 63,843 fans per game. The Green Bay game on November 22, 1998 set a Metrodome single-game attendance record with 64,471 fans watching a 28-14 Viking win.

Connolly has held executive positions with IBM, Bell Atlantic, Ameritech and the Kansas City Chiefs and most recently worked directly for Lamar Hunt as President of the Hunt Sports Group. Joining the Chiefs in January of 1989, Connolly served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and was responsible for many of the changes and innovations that helped the Chiefs resurgence in the '90s.

Connolly was a key element of the turnaround effort in Kansas City, helping position the Chiefs as one of the dominant teams of the '90s on and off the field. When Connolly arrived in Kansas City, the Chiefs had 25,000 season ticket holders and had participated in only one playoff game in 17 years. The year before Connolly arrived in Kansas City the Chiefs drew 406,249 fans to their regular-season home games. That number grew to an NFL-high 625,936 in his last season with the team. Kansas City led the NFL in home attendance in 1994 and '95. During Connolly's tenure with the Chiefs they only missed the playoffs once in seven years and have led the NFL in attendance since 1994. The Chiefs organization became a model of consistency, ranking near the top of the league in wins, attendance, revenue and profit.

Connolly arrived in Kansas City after serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of two Bell Atlantic subsidiaries. He began his business career in 1971 with the IBM Corporation, where he served in various sales, staff and management positions. Connolly graduated from George Washington University. Tim has three children Jennifer, Brie and John and resides in Deephaven.

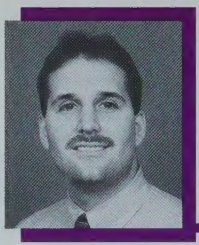
VIKINGS



Rob Brzezinski

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

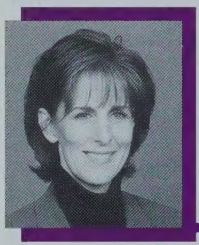
Rob Brzezinski, in his first season with the Vikings, joins the club as the Director of Football Administration. Brzezinski spent the past six seasons with the Miami Dolphins where he most recently held the position of Staff Counsel/Salary Cap.

Brzezinski will be responsible for negotiating player contracts, salary cap administration, roster management, and general football administration. Brzezinski is also a member of the NFL Management Council's Technology Group, which has developed new systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management, and information management.

In Miami, Brzezinski assisted in managing the team's business affairs, including salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. In his six seasons with Miami under the direction of head coaches Don Shula and Jimmy Johnson, the Dolphins compiled a 55-41 (.573) regular-season record and made four playoff appearances.

Brzezinski earned two advanced degrees from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, FL, a J.D. in 1995 and a B.S. in education in 1992. In addition, Brzezinski is a member of the Florida Bar.

Brzezinski and his wife Leah, who has earned a doctoral degree in education, reside in Eden Prairie, MN.



Terri Huml

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF SALES & MARKETING

Terri Huml enters her first season with Vikings in 1999 as the Senior Director of Sales and Marketing. Huml comes to the Vikings from Favorite Brands International where she served as Vice President of Sales. She also held a position with Rainbow Foods as Vice President of Grocery Sales and Merchandising. Huml has a strong, 20-year track record with consumer product companies.

Huml oversees all aspects of the team's ticket sales, suite sales, new corporate sponsorship development, merchandise sales, game day production and promotions, broadcast rights, community events and corporate partnerships. Under her direction, the Vikings will launch a new, state-of-the-art web site for the 1999 season and upgrade customer service for season ticket holders. She is also responsible for developing and implementing creative marketing promotions designed to increase the corporate sponsors' involvement with the team.

Huml received her Bachelor of Arts degree from DePaul University. She resides in Bloomington, MN and has four children, Mike, Matt, Kate and Annie.

Nick Valentine

DIRECTOR OF FINANCE

Nick Valentine joined the Viking's in 1992 as the Viking's Director of Finance. Valentine is responsible for budgeting, planning, human resources, information systems, accounting and day-to-day financial operations of the club.

Prior to working for the Vikings, Valentine worked 21 years in the toy industry at Tonka Toys and Kenner Products, in a variety of finance and accounting roles.

Valentine earned his undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Cincinnati in 1980 and his masters degree in finance from Xavier University in 1984. Nick is engaged to Sherry Trepp, has a daughter, Emma, and two stepdaughters, Auda and Brooke.

Dennis Green

HEAD COACH/VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

The 1999 season marks Dennis Green's eighth campaign as the head coach of the Minnesota Vikings. Green and Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher are the longest tenured coaches with their current NFL teams. Over the past seven years, Green has been one of the best coaches in the league at getting his players to give a consistent effort every week and every year, leading Minnesota to the playoffs in six of his seven seasons at the helm. In his seven seasons as the head coach of the Vikings, Green has guided the Vikings to a 71-41 (.634) regular season record. In addition, Green has been to postseason play in 9-of-the-past-10 years (Minnesota 1992-94, '96-98; San Francisco 1986-88) he's been associated with a NFL team and produced a remarkable 104-54-1 (.657) record in those 10 seasons.

Green's keen eye for personnel helped the Vikings have their finest season in their 38-year history in 1998. The Vikings acquired Randall Cunningham (1997) and Gary Anderson (1998) via free agency, Jimmy Hitchcock in a trade (1998) and Dwayne Rudd (1997) and Randy Moss (1998) through the draft. In 1998, Green guided the Vikings to a 15-1 regular-season record, only the third team to win 15 regular-season games in NFL history and set the NFL scoring record with 556 points. The eight-game winning streak to end the 1998 season was the longest since 1975 when the club won their first 10 games. With 15 wins, Green set his career best surpassing the 11 victories in 1992. The Vikings advanced to the NFC Championship game in 1998 for the first time since 1987. Green was named NFL Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Club and Sports Illustrated. He was also named 1998 Professional Coach of the Year in the Upper Midwest by Midwest Sports Channel.

In 1998 Green inserted backup quarterback Randall Cunningham into the starting lineup vs. Detroit (9/20). The move paid off as Cunningham went on to have the finest season of his 13-year NFL career and was chosen as the Miller Lite NFL Player of the Year. Green also took a chance on rookie Randy Moss, a wide receiver that 19 other teams passed on in the 1998 NFL Draft. Moss set numerous team and NFL rookie records and was named NFL Rookie of the Year by virtually every publication in the country.

During his seven seasons in a era of free agency, Green has led Minnesota to the playoffs with five different starting quarterbacks (1992–Sean Salisbury, 1993–Jim McMahon, 1994–Warren Moon, 1996–Brad Johnson, 1997-98–Randall Cunningham). Green also has produced winning teams while adding young talent to the roster. Between 1992-98 the Vikings have selected 57 players of whom 48 have been on the Vikings roster and 31 have started at one point in their career with the Vikings.

Upon arriving at Minnesota, Green instilled a winning attitude, regardless of the playing surface, temperature, home or away. Since '92 the Vikings have a winning record outside (27-19), in domes (44-22), on grass (19-15), on artificial turf (52-26) and temperatures below 40 degrees (6-3). At the Metrodome under Green, Minnesota is 39-17 (.696), including 21-7 (.750) against the NFC Central and 26-10 (.722) over the past five years. The Vikings enter the 1999 season with a nine-game regular season home-winning streak.

Green is one of three head coaches on the league's Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules, as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions. NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue appointed him to this role in the fall of 1994.

As a result of injuries, the mid-season moves that Green made in 1996 and 1997 propelled the Vikings into the playoffs, and are perfect examples of his never quit attitude and why he has been successful in the NFL. Against Detroit in 1997's 15th game, Green changed six different starters on defense. That lineup included four rookies, including three — Stalin Colinet, Dwayne Rudd and Tony Williams — who made their first NFL start. John Randle moved from under tackle to start at right end in place of injured Derrick Alexander. Williams started at under tackle. Colinet started at left end in place of injured Fernando Smith. Ed McDaniel moved from weakside linebacker to start in place of injured Jeff Brady in the middle. Rudd started on the weakside. Torrian Gray started at free safety in place of injured Orlando Thomas. Minnesota held a Lions offense that had scored 155 points in its previous four games to 14 points. The Vikings then beat Indianapolis in the season finale and the Giants in the first-round playoff game.

The underlying theme of Green's teams has been their perseverance, with no excuses and a drive to win. Paramount to that outlook has been his teams' penchant for coming from behind to win. Since '92 Minnesota has come back from fourth-quarter deficits to win 17 times, including a first-round playoff win over the Giants in 1997 in East Rutherford, NJ. Prior to Green's arrival, the Vikings had lost 10 consecutive games when they trailed in the fourth quarter. The 16-point deficit Minnesota overcame against the Giants was the biggest postseason comeback in team history, the fifth biggest in NFL playoff history and the NFL's biggest on the road in postseason since '72. The Vikings also led the NFL with a team season-record 132 fourth-quarter points in '97.

Green's decision in 1996 with six games remaining to insert quarterback Brad Johnson and newly-signed running back Leroy Hoard into the starting lineup, then put 274-pound tight end Hunter Goodwin and 348-pound guard David Dixon in front of them, recreated a Vikings offense that had lost its starting running back (Robert Smith) and quarterback (Warren Moon) to injuries. The revitalization of the offense was a big key as Minnesota won four of its next five games to earn a playoff berth.

In '95 Minnesota stayed in playoff contention until the final game despite playing with a young roster against the fourth toughest schedule in the league. The team also overcame the loss of starters for 42 games due to injury in '95.

In '94 the Vikings faced the fourth toughest schedule in the NFL and still came away with the NFC Central crown. By doing so, Green became one of only eight men in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first three seasons ('92-94) as a head coach. Minnesota's success came despite one of the youngest and least experienced starting lineups in the league. Among that year's playoff teams, only New England's starters averaged fewer years of NFL experience (4.9) that Minnesota (5.1). In addition none of the '94 playoff teams had more players with 3 years or less experience among their 22 starters than the eight with the Vikings.

In '93 the Vikings qualified as a wild-card entrant with a 9-7 mark despite losing several key veterans, particularly on offense. Although four of Minnesota's final five opponents were playoff teams—including three division winners—and three of those five games were on the road, the Vikings put together a 4-1 record, including wins in their final three regular-season games for the first time since '74.

In '92 Green led Minnesota to its best records (11-5) and its only division title under a first-year head coach. He earned NFL Coach of the Year honors from the Washington Touchdown Club and NFC Coach of the Year honors from United Press International and College & Pro Football Newsweekly. In addition the Vikings came within one win of tying the team season record for victories and won seven division games, the most in a season in Minnesota history. Green also became one of only 11 men since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 to lead his team to a division title in his first season as a NFL head coach. Of those 11, only two came directly from a collegiate job as Green did.

Prior to joining Minnesota, Green spent three seasons (1989-91) reviving Stanford's football program. In '88, the season before his arrival, the Cardinal posted a 3-6-2 record. In '90 Stanford upset then-No. 1 ranked Notre Dame in South Bend, IN. During Green's final season at Stanford in '91, he led the Cardinal to the school's longest winning streak (7) since '51; their most PAC 10 victories (6) since '70; and their first bowl appearance since '86. Only a Georgia Tech touchdown with 14 seconds left in the Aloha Bowl kept Stanford from its first postseason victory since '78.

Before taking over the helm at Stanford, Green tutored receivers for three seasons (1986-88) in San Francisco, where he helped the 49ers to a Super Bowl title following the '88 season. Under Green's tutelage, Jerry Rice twice earned NFL Player of the Year recognition and was named Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl XXIII, and John Taylor played in three Pro Bowls.

Green's first head coaching opportunity came at Northwestern University from 1981-85 when Green was named Big Ten Coach of the Year. In '72 Green began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Iowa. He then spent a season (1973) as running backs/receivers coach at Dayton before returning to handle the same role at Iowa from 1974-76. In '77, Green moved on to oversee running backs at Stanford.

After seven seasons as a collegiate assistant, Green's first NFL coaching stint came in San Francisco as wide receivers/special teams coach in '79. He returned to Stanford as offensive coordinator, under current Vikings Pro Personnel Director Paul Wiggin, in '80, when Cardinal quarterback John Elway set a PAC 10 record for touchdown passes in a season with 27.

The youngest of five brothers, Green (2/17/49) grew up in Harrisburg, PA, where he earned all-state honors as a running back at John Harris High School. Green also served as class president in high school.

He started a season at flanker and two seasons at running back at Iowa, where he was recruited by current Vikings Vice President Frank Gilliam, then an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes. In '68, Green, who was a teammate of current Vikings defensive backs coach Richard Solomon at Iowa, posted one of the best rushing days in school history with 175 yards and two touchdowns against Texas Christian. Green earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in '69 and '70.

Following his collegiate career, Green played defensive back briefly for British Columbia of the Canadian Football League in '71.

In '93, Green, who earned his degree in recreation education at Iowa, received Pop Warner's Golden Football Award for his distinguished record of service to youth, community, country and humanity.

An avid fisherman, Green had hosted a bass tournament to benefit the Minneapolis Boys and Girls Clubs Outdoor Programs. He also serves on their Board of Directors and as a Trustee. Green also started the "Bus Green Music Team," named after his late father, to provide musical instruments and music education for inner city youth. He also enjoys playing the drums, keeping a set at the Vikings' practice facility. During the season the Green Academic Team offers to active young students.

Green and his wife Marie donate thier time to the "Meals on Wheels" program, delivering meals to senior citizens. Their other charitable endeavors include the American Red Cross, the Boys and Girls Clubs of St. Paul, the Community Bridge Consortium of Maplewood, the Epilepsy Foundation of Minnesota, Friendship Ventures in Annandale, the Minnesota Special Olympics, the PACER Center in Minneapolis, Project Offstreets in Minneapolis, the Second Harvest Food Bank of St. Paul, The Jacob Wetterling Foundation in St. Joseph and the United Negro College Fund of Minneapolis.

Dennis and wife Marie have a daughter Vanessa Anna-Marie (2/1/97) and a son Zachary Dennis William (11/6/98) and the Green family resides in Minnesota. He also has two adult children. Jeremy is a scout in the personnel department for the San Francisco 49ers and Patti is a marketing and event specialist.

Green, as a 28-year career football coach at virtually every level, has always considered professional developments and assistant coaches advancements one of his great joys. Green said, "A promotion for an assistant coach means a lot to him and his family in long term career goals and also financial return. So I have always tried my best to put what's best for that coach first. That is what Bill Walsh did for me and I appreciated it."

Vikings Achievements Under the Direction of Dennis Green

- In 1998 Dennis Green led the Vikings to become the third team to finish 15-1 since NFL went to 16 games in 1978. The San Francisco 49ers in 1984 and the Chicago Bears in 1985 also finished 15-1.
- In 1998 the Vikings offense set a team record for yards in a season (6,264) and touchdown passes (41). The Vikings had 5,938 yards and 33 touchdown passes in 1995.
- The Vikings finished 8-0 at home in 1998 for the first time since 1989.
- The Vikings set the NFL record for points scored in a season in 1998 with 556. The Redskins scored 541 in 1983.
- Cris Carter and Randy Moss broke the NFL single-season record in 1998 for receiving touchdowns by a tandem with 29. Jerry Rice (22) and either Dwight Clark (5) or Mike Wilson (5) had 27 touchdowns in 1987 (also coached by Green in San Francisco) and Jerry Rice (17) and John Taylor (10) had 27 in '89.
- Coached teams that have made the playoffs six times in seven years under the direction of five different quarter backs. Only San Francisco has made the playoffs in each of the last seven seasons.
- Dennis Green (hired 1/10/92) is number one in longevity with the same team as a head coach in the NFL. Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh) entered the NFL (1/21/92) along with Dennis Green in 1992. Green's record is 2-0 vs. Cowher.

- Has never had a losing season. Over the last seven seasons only San Francisco, Green Bay, and Miami can make the same claim.
- In the turnover ratio category the Vikings have placed in the top seven in the NFC (including twice finishing first) in each season Dennis Green has been the head coach.
- In his seven seasons as head coach of the Vikings the team has finished in the top 10 in the NFL in offense four times, twice in rushing, four times in passing, twice in defense, three times in rush defense and three times in passing defense. The Vikings finished first in total defense in 1993, first in rushing defense in 1994 and first in passing offense in 1998.
- 18 different players have made it to the Pro Bowl 37 times under Dennis Green: Gary Anderson, K; Cris Carter, WR; Jeff Christy, C; Randall Cunningham, QB; Jack Del Rio, LB; Chris Doleman, DE; Ed McDaniel, LB; Randall McDaniel, G; Audray McMillian, CB; Warren Moon, QB; Randy Moss, WR; John Randle, DT; Fuad Reveiz, K; Todd Scott, S; Robert Smith, RB; Todd Steussie, T; Henry Thomas, DT; Gary Zimmerman, T.
- A team record 10 Vikings players (Anderson, Carter, Christy, Cunningham, E. McDaniel, R. McDaniel, Moss, Randle, Smith, Steussie) were selected to the 1999 Pro Bowl team that was coached by Dennis Green.

Foge Fazio

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

In Foge Fazio's three seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Minnesota Vikings the team has a 33-15 (.688) record and has qualified for the playoffs each season.

In '98 Fazio oversaw a defensive unit that ranked sixth in the NFL in points allowed (296). The Vikings tied for fourth in the NFC in interceptions with 19 and shut out their opponents in 29 of 73 quarters, including playoffs. The Vikings opponent's passer rating (73.8) was the sixth worst in the NFL and the Vikings defense held their opponents to under 20 points in 8-of-the-16 games. John Randle (6th appearance) and Ed McDaniel (1st) were selected to the Pro Bowl while Randle, Robert Griffith, Jimmy Hitchcock and Dwayne Rudd (2nd team) were named All-Pro.

In '97, Fazio oversaw a unit that had many changes, including four rookies starting on defense for the first time in team history. With two games to go in the regular season and the Vikings fighting for a playoff spot, the team changed six different starters on defense. That lineup included four rookies, including three — linebacker Dwayne Rudd, defensive tackle Tony Williams, and defensive end Stalin Colinet — who made their first NFL start.

The Vikings defense held opponents to under 20 points in five straight games (9/28-11/2) during a Vikings six-game winning streak. A major factor in that win streak was five-time Pro Bowler John Randle, who became the first Vikings player to lead the NFL in sacks (15.5) since Chris Doleman in '89. He was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October '97 with five sacks in just three games. Ed McDaniel, who missed the 1996 due to injury, came back to lead the team in tackles (135) and tackles for loss (11) in '97. Strong safety Robert Griffith finished second on the squad with 128 tackles.

In his first season as the Vikings defensive coordinator, Fazio developed a unit that began '96 with four new starters then battled through the 16-game schedule with nine different starting lineups. First Ed McDaniel, one of the team's top defenders, suffered a season-ending knee injury early in training camp, then defensive linemen Derrick Alexander (hip) and Esera Tuaolo (Achilles) weren't able to start in the final six games. Minnesota still won 4 of-those-final-6, including a victory in Detroit (12/8) when the Vikings also were missing starting outside linebackers Darryl Talley and Dixon Edwards.

Through it all Fazio's '96 defense limited opponents to 70 fewer points than '95. Minnesota also held its opposition to 17-or-fewer points in nine games and kept them to two touchdowns or less seven times last season. Fazio also continued the team's style of pressuring the quarterback and forcing turnovers.

Minnesota finished third in the NFL in third-down defense (33.2%), sixth in the league in sacks (43) and tied for seventh in the NFL in interceptions (22) and takeaways (35) in '96.

The Vikings limited Arizona (12/1) to 35 yards rushing, a low for a '96 Vikings opponent. In the regular-season home finale against Tampa Bay (12/15), Minnesota limited the Buccaneers to 169 total yards, including only 77 yards passing. Those were the fewest total yards by a Vikings opponent since Oct. 20, 1994 and the fewest passing yards since Sept. 12, 1993.

Fazio joined the Vikings as inside linebackers coach in '95, when he tutored McDaniel, who led the NFL in tackles for a loss with 19.5, 6.5 more than his closest pursuer. In addition McDaniel topped Minnesota in tackles (136) and forced fumbles (5) in '95. Fazio also developed Jeff Brady, who had 57 tackles, 3 sacks, 5.5 tackles for a loss, 4 passes defensed, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in the first seven starts of his pro career in '95. Fazio's linebackers were a key factor as the team finished fourth in the league in run defense (83.1 yards per game) and second in the NFL in takeaways (40).

Before joining the Vikings, Fazio worked four seasons (1991-94) as linebackers coach with the New York Jets in a defensive system similar to the Vikings. Between 1991-94 the Jets ranked among the top five in the NFL in run defense twice (5th in '93, 4th in '91). Also during that four-year stretch, they scored nine defensive touchdowns, including three by linebackers, and forced 151 turnovers, second most in the NFL to Philadelphia's 155.

One of Fazio's star pupils with the Jets was Mo Lewis, who earned All-Pro honors in '93 and led NFL linebackers in interceptions with four in '94. Jets linebackers Marvin Jones and Bobby Houston also had their best professional season in '94. Jones finished second on the Jets with a career-high 125 tackles, while Houston was named the team's most improved player after posting a career-high 103 tackles.

Fazio joined the Jets as special teams coach in '90, when they finished fourth in the NFL in punt return average. The Jets also tied for sixth in the league in punting and placed 10th in punt coverage. Against Dallas (11/4) Terance Mathis tied the NFL record for longest punt return with a 98-yard effort for a touchdown.

In his first stint as an NFL assistant, Fazio oversaw tight ends and special teams for two seasons (1988-89) in Atlanta. During his time with the Falcons, Fazio helped with the development of Elbert Shelley, who made the Pro Bowl four times for his special teams play. In '89 Atlanta finished fifth in the league in punts inside the 20, sixth in punt returns and eighth in punting. The Falcons blocked three kicks, led the NFC in punt coverage, tied for second in the NFL in punts inside the 20 and tied for fourth in the league in net punting average in '88.

As a coach on the collegiate level from 1977-87, Fazio guided 50 future NFL draft choices, including nine first-rounders. He also helped develop future All-Pros Hugh Green, Rickey Jackson, Carlton Williamson, Bill Maas and Chris Doleman.

As defensive coordinator at Notre Dame in 1986-87, Fazio groomed a unit that helped the Fighting Irish post an '87 record of 8-3, their best season since '80. That defense provided a foundation for Notre Dame's national championship in '88. During his two seasons with the Fighting Irish, Fazio guided a dozen NFL draft choices.

As head coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1982-85, Fazio posted a 25-18-3 record and led the Panthers to two bowl games. During those four seasons, the school produced 22 NFL draftees, including seven first-rounders.

From 1977-81, Fazio directed Pitt's defense, which finished among the top 10 in the nation in fewest yards allowed four times in five seasons, including '80 and '81 when they led the country in total defense and run defense. His units also produced five first-team All-Americas, including Green who set the school career sack record.

In four seasons (1973-76) as defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati, Fazio tutored the first three first-team All-Americas in school history. In '73 the Bearcats allowed their fewest yards and rushing yards of the past 30 seasons. In '76 Cincinnati posted a 9-2 record, its best mark since '53.

Fazio's first coaching stint at Pitt came as linebackers coach from 1969-72, when he tutored four players who were drafted by the NFL. He began his collegiate coaching career as offensive line coach at Boston University in '66. After two seasons (1966-67) with the Terriers, he moved on to guide the defensive line at Harvard in '68, when the Crimson Tide finished with a 9-0-1 record, their only undefeated season in the past 76 years.

After beginning his coaching career as an assistant at Ambridge, PA, High School in '61, Fazio worked at Coraopolis, PA, High School from 1963-65.

One of the first draft choices of the expansion Boston Patriots as a future pick in 1960, Fazio earned first-team All-East and honorable mention All-America honors as a center at Pitt in '60. He was a teammate of Mike Ditka and former Vikings Fred Cox and Ed Sharockman at Pitt.

A native of Dawmont, WV, (2/28/39), Serafino Dante Fazio attended Coraopolis, PA, High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science and his master's in education from Pitt. He is the founder of the Myron Cope/Foge Fazio Celebrity Golf Tournament for Autistic Children in Pittsburgh, which is now in its 17th year. He and wife Norma have a daughter Kristen Anne (2/2/68) and a son Vince (10/15/70).

Ray Sherman

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ray Sherman returns to the Minnesota Vikings as the offensive coordinator after spending last season with the Pittsburgh Steelers as their offensive coordinator. He previously coached the Vikings quarterbacks from 1995-97.

During his 11 seasons as an NFL assistant coach, Sherman has helped guide offenses that finished among the league's top 10 in points seven times and in total yardage seven times. In those 11 years his teams have a 97-79 (.551) record, have made the playoffs six times, advanced in the playoffs four times and have had only three losing seasons.

In '98 Pittburgh's rushing offense was seventh in the NFL (and 4th in the AFC) behind the 1,185 yards on the ground by Jerome Bettis. Quarterback Kordell Stewart passed for over 2,500 yards for the second time in his career.

In '97 Sherman coached Brad Johnson and Vikings current starting quarterback Randall Cunningham. Behind the leadership of Cunningham, the Vikings beat the N.Y. Giants in the playoffs in come from behind thriller and advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 1988. Cunningham also set a team single-game playoff game for passing yards with 331 yards vs. San Francisco (1/3/98). Johnson finished fourth in the NFC in passer rating (84.5) and tied for third in the NFC in touchdown passes (20) despite missing three games.

With Warren Moon injured for much of '96 season, Sherman groomed Johnson, who stepped in and posted some very impressive numbers. Overall Johnson finished third in the NFL in passing (89.4 rating), fourth in completion percentage (62.7%) and fifth in touchdown percentage (5.5%) in '96. As the starter in the final six games of the year, Johnson helped the Vikings offense average 338.8 yards per game, convert 50.6% of its third downs and score 21.5 points per game. That improved output was a big factor as Minnesota won 4-of-those-6 to capture a playoff berth.

Under Sherman in '95, Moon set a team mark and tied a career high with 33 touchdown passes, which also were good for second in the NFL. He also led the league in completions (377) and placed third in the NFL in passing yards (4,228). Moon threw 193 consecutive passes without an interception in '95 to set a team record and establish a career high. In addition he completed a career-best 12 straight passes against Tampa Bay (10/15).

Johnson also developed under Sherman's tutelage in '95. Johnson did not throw an interception in his first 54 pass attempts and led the Vikings to three touchdowns on the 10 drives he was at the helm.

As offensive coordinator for the New York Jets in '94, Sherman guided a unit that produced some of its best results in several seasons. Wide receiver Rob Moore had the most receptions (78) and receiving yards (1,010) by a Jets receiver since '88. Johnny Johnson posted the most yards rushing (931) by a Jets back since '88. The Jets also threw their most touchdown passes (18) since '88.

In three seasons (1991-93) with San Francisco, Sherman worked with offenses that averaged 6,163 yards, 55 touchdowns and 432 points per year. During Sherman's two season's (1992-93) as wide receivers coach, San Francisco led the NFL in scoring and total offense each year, while their passing attack finished second in the league in '93 and third in the NFL in '92. In addition Jerry Rice was named the Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press after leading the NFL in receiving yards with 1,503 in '93.

In '91 Sherman worked with a 49ers' running game that averaged 116.3 yards per game and 4.2 yards per carry after gaining a paltry 78.6 yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry the previous season. This was accomplished despite the fact that no San Francisco rusher gained more than 561 on the ground in '91.

Atlanta's offense made similar improvements in '90, when Sherman was the Assistant Head Coach-Offense. The Falcons jumped to 10th in the NFL in both scoring and total offense after placing 24th in total offense and 22nd in points in '89. Atlanta also finished sixth in the league in pass offense in '90.

Sherman began his pro coaching career first as running backs coach (1988) then wide receivers coach (1989) at Houston. Four Oilers wide receivers posted 43-or-more catches to jump the passing game from 22nd in the NFL in '88 to 10th in the league in '89.

The Houston running game improved from 14th in '87 to fourth in '88, when the Oilers also set a team season record for rushing touchdowns (26) and finished second in the league in scoring (424). In addition Mike Rozier became the first Houston running back to gain 1,000 yards rushing since '83.

In two seasons (1986-87) as receivers coach at Georgia, Sherman helped the Bulldogs passing game improve from 10th to 2nd in the Southeastern Conference. Georgia also posted a 17-7 record, played in two bowl games and recorded 2-of-the-5 best yardage seasons in school history while Sherman was there.

At Purdue (1982-85) Sherman tutored running backs, including current NFL Pro Bowler Mel Gray, who led the Boilermakers in rushing in '82 and '83. Despite playing only two seasons, Gray finished his collegiate career as the eighth-leading rusher in school history.

While working with running backs and slot backs at California in '81, Sherman oversaw John Tuggle and Carl Montgomery. Tuggle went on to play for the New York Giants. Montgomery rushed for four touchdowns, the second most in a game in school history, against Oregon State in '81.

Prior to joining the Golden Bears, Sherman spent three seasons (1978-80) guiding running backs at Wake Forest, where one of his pupils was James McDougald, the school's record holder for rushing yards in a season (1,231 in '79) and a career. In 1976-77 Sherman worked with tight ends at Michigan State, where he oversaw future NFL draft choices Mike Cobb (1st round) and Mark Brammer (3rd).

Sherman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at San Jose State in '74, when the school went 8-3-1, its best mark since '49. He then joined California's staff as secondary coach in '75.

After two seasons (1969-70) as an All-America wide receiver at Laney Junior College in Oakland, CA, Sherman played defensive back and wide receiver for two years (1971-72) at Fresno State.

A native of Berkeley, CA, (11/27/51), Sherman starred at Oakland High. He earned his degree in education from San Jose State in 1975. Ray and wife Yvette have three children, Ray II (8/29/88), Erica (7/20/91) and Alana (3/19/98).

Richard Solomon

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE BACKS

Since becoming the Vikings defensive backs coach in 1994, Richard Solomon has molded a unit that has become one of the best secondaries in the National Football League. In Solomon's 12 years in the NFL his club's have made the playoffs eight times, had 11 consecutive non-losing seasons (1988-98), won five division titles and one Super Bowl title while compiling an impressive 120-71 (.628) record. Solomon added the title of Assistant Head Coach for the 1999 season.

In 1998 Solomon oversaw a secondary that had two players – strong safety Robert Griffith (The Sporting News) and cornerback Jimmy Hitchcock (College & Pro Football Weekly) – become All-Pro for the first time in their careers. Jimmy Hitchcock (7), Robert Griffith (5) and Corey Fuller (4) set career-highs for interceptions. The Vikings finished tied for fourth in the NFC in interceptions with 19. The Vikings interceptions helped propel them to second in the NFL in turnover ratio (+14). Hitchcock, in his first season with the Vikings, finished tied for second in the NFC with his seven picks. Hitchcock also set season team records for interceptions returns for touchdowns (3), passes defensed (30) and interception return yardage (242). Griffith led all defensive backs and finished third on the squad in tackles with 109. Free safety Orlando Thomas, in only four seasons, moved into 10th place on the Vikings all-time list for interceptions in a career (18).

Fuller led the club in '97 in passes defensed with 18. Griffith led the secondary and was second on the team in '97 with a career-high 128 tackles, which is the most by a Vikings defensive back since Felix Wright had 135 tackles in '91. Thomas finished sixth on the club with 83 tackles. Rookie free safety Torrian Gray started five games including both playoff contests. All four players arrived since Solomon took over coaching the secondary and were a big part of a Minnesota defense that held opponents to under 20 points in five straight games (9/28-11/2) during a Vikings six-game winning streak.

Minnesota entered '96 with no starter who had been in the NFL more than two seasons and finished the campaign ninth in the league in pass defense (195.1 yards per game). The Vikings also were third in the NFL in third-down defense (33.2%), sixth in sacks (43) and tied for seventh in interceptions (22). In the regular-season home finale against Tampa Bay (12/15), Minnesota limited the Buccaneers to the fewest passing yards (77) by a Vikings opponent since Chicago was held to 52 yards passing on Sept. 12, 1993.

Each of the Vikings '96 starters in the secondary entered the NFL under the coaching of Solomon. Dewayne Washington had been a starter at right cornerback since the first game of his rookie campaign in '94. He tied the team record for career defensive touchdowns with four. Thomas had intercepted more passes (14) over the previous two years (1995-96) than any other player in the league. He led the NFL in interceptions with nine as a rookie in '95. Griffith developed from a first-year free agent in '94 to lead the secondary in tackles (103), tackles for a loss (7.5) and sacks (2) in '96. Fuller finished the '96 campaign tied for second on the team in passes defensed (16).

In 1995, the Vikings young secondary was a big part in the defense finishing second in the NFL in interceptions (25) and tied for fourth in sacks (44). Thomas, an all-rookie pick, started 11 games, while Fuller, who led the secondary in tackles, started 10 games.

In '94 Solomon faced the challenge of coaching the secondary with two new starting cornerbacks (Washington and Anthony Parker) and a nickel back (Malik Boyd) who was a rookie free agent. Minnesota still improved from 13th in the NFL in third-down defense in '93 to sixth in '94. The Vikings also finished eighth in the league in yards allowed per pass play (5.8). In addition College & Pro Football Newsweekly selected Washington as the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Parker set an NFL record for consecutive games (3) with a defensive touchdown.

In two seasons (1992-93) as Minnesota's outside linebackers coach, Solomon developed Carlos Jenkins, who hadn't started an NFL game prior to '92. On a unit that led the league in defense in '93, Jenkins topped all Vikings non-linemen in sacks (2.5), tied for the team lead among non defensive backs in passes batted down (7) and posted interceptions in back-to-back games against Chicago (9/26) and Tampa Bay (10/3). Minnesota also had the NFC's stingiest run defense (96.0/gm.) and held opponents to the fewest first downs (259) in the league in '93.

In '92 Jenkins scored on an interception return against Chicago (11/2) and on a fumble recovery against Tampa Bay (11/8) to become the first Vikings player ever with a defensive touchdown in consecutive games. He also led all non-linemen in sacks (4) on a Minnesota defense that held opponents to 4.5 yards per play, second only to New Orleans.

Before joining the Vikings, Solomon was a scout for the New York Giants from 1987-91. During his five years there, the Giants posted a 49-30 record (.620), won two NFC East titles and defeated Buffalo in Super Bowl XXV.

As defensive coordinator at Illinois from 1980-86, Solomon helped turn around a program that hadn't posted back-to-back winning seasons or appeared in a bowl since the early '60s. Behind Solomon's defense, which finished second in the Big Ten in '83 and third in '84, the Fighting Illini put together five consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since the late '20s.

In '83 Illinois swept through the Big Ten with a 9-0 record to become the only Illinois team ever to beat all nine conference opponents in the same season. The Fighting Illini played in the '82 Liberty Bowl, the '84 Rose Bowl and the '85 Peach Bowl.

As wide receivers coach at Syracuse in '79, Solomon guided Art Monk, who caught 40 passes for a then-school record 716 yards to earn All-America honors. Monk went on to become the NFL's all-time leading receiver. Despite playing all their home games that season at neutral sites due to stadium construction, the Orangemen posted a 7-5 record and played in their first bowl game (Independence) since '66.

Solomon began his coaching career tutoring defensive backs at Dubuque University in '73. He also worked as defensive coordinator for the Spartans before departing to coach the secondary at Southern Illinois in '76. From 1977-78 he worked with wide receivers at Iowa.

A three-year letterman (1969-71) at Iowa, Solomon started at defensive back his final two seasons with the Hawkeyes. Solomon, who also earned two letters in track in college, played running back as a sophomore. Dennis Green and Solomon were teammates at Iowa.

A native of New Orleans, LA, (12/8/49), Richard Solomon was an all-state selection and three-time all-league pick at St. Augustine High School. He earned his degree in physical education from Iowa. Richard and wife Ciara have three children — Alesia (3/4/67), Brandon (8/23/75) and Ryann (3/15/81).

Hubbard Alexander

WIDE RECEIVERS

In Hubbard Alexander's 10 seasons coaching in the NFL, his team's have compiled a 99-61 (.619) regular season record, a 13-4 (.765) playoff mark, made seven playoff appearances, won six division titles, been to five NFC Championship games and won three Super Bowl championships. Three different wide receivers (Cris Carter, Randy Moss and Michael Irvin) have combined for seven Pro Bowl appearances under the guidance of Alexander.

In his first season with the Vikings in 1998, Alexander guided the duo of Carter and Moss to an NFL record for touchdown catches by a receiving tandem with 29. Moss led the NFL in touchdown receptions with 17 while Carter finished fourth with 12. The duo became the first set of wide receivers in team history to be selected to the Pro Bowl in the same season. Moss set or tied 28 Viking records including rookie records for receiving yards (1,313), touchdown receptions (17) and receptions (69) and was named Rookie of the Year by every major publication. Carter moved into second place on the NFL's all-time list for touchdown receptions with 101 and set the Vikings team record for touchdowns in a career with 82. The Vikings offense racked up a NFL record for points in a season (556) and set team single season mark for total yards (6,264).

Prior to coming to the Vikings Alexander spent nine seasons with the Cowboys where between 1992 and '95 they dominated the NFL with a 49-15 (.766) regular season record and a 12-3 (.800) playoff mark, winning three Super Bowls.

In '97 Irvin finished tied for seventh in the NFC in receptions with 75 and tied for eighth in the NFC in touchdowns with nine. Irvin has caught 634 passes in the NFL and 777 total passes, including college catches, under his direction.

In '96 Alexander's receivers missed 14 combined games, and still managed to finish the season with 153 receptions, the second highest reception total for Cowboy receivers since Alexander arrived in Dallas in 1989. Michael Irvin, Deion Sanders and Kevin Williams led the receivers while Kelvin Martin made kickoff return appearances for the Cowboys.

Despite missing the first five games of the '96 season, Irvin led the Cowboys with 64 receptions for 952 yards. His 5.8 catch-per-game average was the second highest average of his career, trailing only the 6.9 average from his career-high 111-catch season of 1995. Alexander's work with cornerback/wide receiver Sanders led to 36 receptions for 475 yards in his first as a full-time receiver. Irvin earned his fifth Pro Bowl appearance in '95 by registering 1,603 yards on 111 receptions, both totals are Cowboy team records. He tied for the NFL record for consecutive 100-yard receiving games with seven and finished the year with a club record 11 100-yard receiving games. The Cowboys finished the season with their third Super Bowl championship in five seasons.

In '94 Alexander helped Irving to a fourth Pro Bowl appearance after tallying 1,241 yards on 79 receptions. Irvin also established career post-season highs when he recorded 12 catches for 192 yards in the NFC Championship game. Alvin Harper led the NFL with a 24.9 yards-per-catch average.

In '93 Alexander directed a receiving corps that led the Cowboys to their second straight world championship. Irvin finished second in the NFL in receiving yardage with 1,330 and third in receptions with 88.

Alexander helped Irvin finish second in the NFL with 1,396 receiving yards in '92. Alexander's receivers made a major contribution to the success of the Cowboys with Irvin also receiving MVP honors in the Pro Bowl. In '91 Alexander oversaw Irvin, who lead the NFL in receiving yards with 1,523 on 93 receptions. In '90 Alexander guided a pair of starting receivers Martin and Irvin who both came off of major knee operations. Martin had his best season as a pro with a team-high 64 catches. Irving scored touchdowns every four receptions and averaged 20.7 yards-per-catch. In Alexander's first year with the Cowboys in '89, he lost both Irvin and Martin to knee injuries and had to develop a group of new receivers.

In 10 seasons (1979-88) at the University of Miami, Alexander developed three of the school's all-time leaders in receiving. Alexander coached the tight ends from 1979-84 and worked with Glenn Dennison (81-83), who set records for most receptions. This record was passed by Alexander's All-America selection Willie Smith (84-85).

In 1985 "Axe" began coaching the receivers and molded one of college football's most famous receiver units with Brian Blades, Brett Perriman and Irvin. All three were among the first 52 players selected in the 1988 NFL draft. All three led their NFL teams in receiving in 1991.

Following nine seasons as a highly successful high school coach in Memphis, TN, Alexander spent five seasons as an assistant at Vanderbilt (1974-78) before joining the Hurricanes. A three-year starter at center at Tennessee State, he earned All-America Honors as a senior and was signed as a free agent by the Cowboys. He began his coaching career at Tennessee State in 1962, after graduating with a degree in Health and Physical Education. Hubbard Lindsey Alexander (2/14/39) graduated from Atkins high school in Winston-Salem, NC. He and his wife, Gloria have three sons - Todd (12/4/65), Chad (2/17/75) and Bard (11/4/79).

Dave Atkins

TIGHT ENDS

In his second season as tight end coach of the Vikings in 1998, Dave Atkins helped mold Andrew Glover into one of the finest tight ends in the National Football League.

In the Vikings powerful offense of 1998 Glover finished third in receptions (35), receiving yards (522) and touchdown receptions (5). All three were career-highs for Glover. His nine catches vs. New Orleans (11/8) were the third most by a Viking tight end in team history. He had the most touchdown catches by a Vikings tight end since Steve Jordan also had five in '88, the most catches by a Minnesota tight end since Andrew Jordan had 35 in '94 and the most receiving yards by a Vikings tight end since Steve Jordan had 542 in '93.

Glover had 378 receiving yards on 32 catches in his first season as a Viking in '97. Hunter Goodwin had a career-high two receptions in each of the first two games. Greg DeLong had a career-high 23-yard catch in Tampa (10/26).

In 13 seasons as an assistant in the NFL, Atkins has helped players and offenses achieve their best results. As running backs coach for New Orleans in '96, Atkins oversaw second-year man Ray Zellars, who rushed for 174 yards — the third most in Saints history — against Chicago (10/13). He finished the year with 475 yards rushing in only nine games. Atkins also guided fullback Lorenzo Neal, who caught a career-high 31 passes to finish third on the team in receiving.

From 1994-95 Atkins served as offensive coordinator in Arizona. He also handled running backs in '94, when the Cardinals led the NFL in time of possession (32:37) and finished with their best record (8-8) since '84. In '95 fullback Larry Centers set a league record for catches by a running back and an Arizona record for catches in a season with 101 to earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl. In addition Garrison Hearst rushed for 1,070 yards and 17-year veteran Dave Krieg completed a career-high 304 passes in '95.

As running backs coach with New England in 1993, Atkins tutored Leonard Russell, who rushed for a career-high 1,088 yards to finish second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. Against the Jets (11/28) he ran for 147 yards, the best rushing day by a Patriots back since '83. Atkins' first NFL coaching duties came with Philadelphia from 1986-92. The Eagles made the playoffs four times in his seven seasons there. He oversaw running backs the first five years then coached special teams in '91 and tight ends in '92. Between '88 and '92, the Eagles won at least 10 games each season and made the playoffs four times. Philadelphia's rushing attack, which finished 23rd in the NFL the year before Atkins' arrival, improved to place among the top 10 in the league 5-of-the-6 years he worked with the offense, including 1990 when they led the league and 1992 when it finished second. The Eagles also set a team record for points (396) in '90. Vikings quarterback Randall Cunningham (1986-92) and wide receiver Cris Carter (1987-89) were a part of the Eagles offense during his tenure.

In his final season with Philadelphia, Atkins oversaw the transformation of Keith Byars from running back to tight end. Byars finished '92 with 56 catches to rank second in the NFL in receptions among tight ends. Byars had 371 catches during Atkins coaching stint with the Eagles.

From 1981-85 Atkins worked with running backs at San Diego State, where he was on the same staff as current Vikings special teams coach Gary Zauner and former Vikings offensive coordinator and current Baltimore Ravens head coach Brian Billick. During his stint with the Aztecs, Atkins developed Chris Hardy, who matched the second longest run in school history (92 yards) twice in '85. Hardy finished his collegiate career as the second leading all-time rusher at SDSU.

Atkins began his coaching career as an assistant at Burges High School in El Paso, TX, in 1977. He then coached running backs and worked with the kicking game at the University of Texas - El Paso for two seasons (1979-80). In '80 Atkins oversaw Delbert Thompson who rushed for 923 yards, which at the time was the third best rushing season in school history.

After averaging over five yards per carry during his career (1970-72) at Texas-El Paso, where he served as a tri-captain his senior year, Atkins was drafted in the eighth round by San Francisco in 1973. In five games with the 49ers his rookie year, Atkins carried four times for 19 yards and a touchdown and returned a kickoff 54 yards, the team's longest of the year. In '74 he played for the Honolulu Hawaiians of the World Football League. The following year Atkins went to training camp with Kansas City then was picked up by San Diego, where he played three games in '75. Current Vikings Assistant General Manager Paul Wiggin was on San Francisco's staff in '73 and was head coach at Kansas City in '75.

David Charles Atkins (5/18/49) lettered in football and as a high hurdler in track at Victoria, TX, High School. He earned his degree in secondary education from Texas-El Paso. He and wife Cynthia have two children Dave, Jr. (11/19/76) and Jasmine (12/17/90).

Dean Dalton

QUALITY CONTROL

Dean Dalton joins the Vikings and the NFL in 1999 after spending the past four years as the managing editor of War Room Publications and the president of The Red Zone interactive. Dalton brings a wealth of football knowledge from many different angles.

The War Room publishes magazines evaluating professional football player personnel through free agency and the draft. The Red Zone operates electronic interactive internet sites and operates fantasy football leagues via the internet. Both companies did consulting for CBS Sports, FOX Sports, CNN/SI, The Sporting News, and SportsFan Radio.

During these last few years Dalton has also worked as the Dean of Students and Director of Athletics for the Delavan Darien School District in Delevan, WI (1996-98), and was the Athletic Director and Administrator and head coach for football for St. Michael's Academy in Austin, TX (1995-96). St. Michael made it to the Texas State Playoffs in 1995 and had three players selected All-State. From 1994-95 Dalton worked as a segment producer for Inside Houston, a business new magazine show. Prior to that he worked as the chief scout for Paradise Sports Corporation from 1991-93 where he evaluated and recruited college talent for the NFL draft.

In his last collegiate coaching job at Purdue in 1990, Dalton oversaw the wide receivers. Behind head coach Fred Akers run and shoot offense the Boilermakers finished first in the Big Ten in passing. He coached Jermaine Ross who has played in the NFL the past five seasons and is currently with the Cleveland Browns.

During Dalton's time at Texas Southern from 1988-89 he coached running backs (1988-89) and was the defensive line and special teams coordinator in the spring of '90. At Texas Southern he coached Michael Strahan who now plays for the New York Giants and has been selected to the Pro Bowl two times (1997-98). Prior to Texas Southern, Dalton coached at Wisconsin from 1986-87. During his time with the Badgers he coached the wide receivers ('86), the tight ends ('87) and was the assistant recruiting coordinator in the spring of '88. Dalton broke into the college coaching ranks in 1984 with Western Illinois, coaching the secondary in 1984 and receivers in '85.

Dalton played defensive back at the Air Force Academy from 1981-82. His defensive coordinator was current Dallas Cowboys head coach Chan Gailey. Dalton finished his collegiate career at Western Illinois from 1983-84 where multiple injuries led him into assisting in coaching. He got his first chance at coaching with Burlington (WI) High School where he helped coach the club into the state playoffs.

At high school in Burlington, Dalton was twice an All-Conference quarterback and linebacker for a state semi-finalist squad. He was coached by his father Don, who coached at Burlington for 30 years and had one of the top winning percentages (.830) in state history, and is a member of the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Dalton graduated from Western Illinois with a Marketing Management-History degree in 1985 and earned his Masters from the University of Wisconsin in '88.

Dean and his wife, Donna, have two sons, Devon (8/3/92) and Davis (11/18/93).

Dalton's Background
Player: Air Force Academy 1981-82, Western Illinois 1983-84.
Coach: Western Illinois 1984-85, Wisconsin 1986-87, Texas Southern 1988-89, Purdue 1990.

Carl Hargrave

RUNNING BACKS

In his four seasons as running backs coach with the Vikings, Carl Hargrave has been adept at keeping all his backs ready to play at a high level. In 64 games under Hargrave, six players have started in the Minnesota backfield, and five backs have rushed for over 75 yards in a game, including three who have topped the 100-yard plateau. Hargrave also guided the first Vikings running back (Robert Smith) to make the Pro Bowl since Chuck Foreman in 1977. In his five seasons with the Vikings the team has compiled a 51-29 (.638) record and made four playoff appearances.

In '98 Robert Smith finished fifth in the NFC (10th in the NFL) in rushing yards (1,187) and sixth in the NFC in total yards from scrimmage (1,478). The rushing yards were the third most in team history. He tied for the second most rushing yards in club history with 179 vs. St. Louis (9/13). Smith broke a team mark that had stood for 22 years for rushing yards in a playoff game with 124 vs. Arizona (1/10/99). He also had a career-best 291 yards receiving on the season. Smith and Leroy Hoard combined to set a Viking record for rushing yards in a season by a tandem with 1,666 (Smith 1,187; Hoard 479). Both backs also combined for 18 touchdowns in the Vikings record setting season.

In '97 Smith set team records for rushing yards in a season (1,266), 100-yard games in a season (6), season rushing average (5.5), and most 50-yards-or-more rushes in a season (3). He finished third on the club in receptions with a career-high 37 despite missing over two games to injury. Smith also had two-of-the-three longest rushes (78 yards vs. Buffalo, 8/31 and 76 yards vs. Indianapolis, 12/21) in club history. Hargrave also oversaw starting fullback Charles Evans, who had career highs for carries (43), rushing yards (157) and receiving yards (152).

In '96 Smith was averaging 99 yards rushing per game on a pace to 1,584 yards, which would have led the NFL, before suffering a season-ending knee injury against Chicago (10/28). Minnesota then signed Hoard, who rushed for 108 yards against Oakland (11/17) to become the first player since Herschel Walker in '89 to rush for over 100 yards in his first start with the Vikings. Hoard also rushed for 94 yards against Arizona (12/1) and 101 yards and a pair of touchdowns against Tampa Bay (12/15). His efforts were vital to Minnesota winning 4-of-its-final-6 games to earn a playoff berth. Hargrave also oversaw Amp Lee, who finished sixth in the NFL in catches among running backs (54).

In '95 Smith was fifth in the league in rushing and on pace to a team season rushing record before suffering an ankle injury against Green Bay (10/22). Rookie fifth-round draft choice James Stewart then stepped in for Smith. Stewart led Minnesota in rushing against the Packers (11/5) and New Orleans (11/19) before a broken bone in his leg forced him to miss the final five games. Against Tampa Bay (12/3) Lee rushed for 90 yards, including a career-long 66-yard touchdown that was the longest run by a Minnesota player since '91. He tied for third in the NFL in catches by a back with 71, which are the most by a Vikings back since 1981. Scottie Graham started the final three games of '95. He gained 98 yards on the ground against Tampa Bay (12/3) and 115 yards rushing at Cincinnati (12/24).

In his first season with Minnesota in '94, Hargrave was an offensive assistant, working mainly with the tight ends. He helped guide Adrian Cooper, who caught 32 passes, and Andrew Jordan, who was a consensus all-rookie selection. Hargrave joined the Vikings after two seasons (1992-93) as tight ends coach at the University of Iowa. He also attended Minnesota's training camp in '92 and '93 as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Intern Program.

At Iowa Hargrave developed tight end Scott Slutzker, who as a sophomore in '93 finished second on the Hawkeyes in receptions with 29. Hargrave also oversaw the outstanding senior season of tight end Alan Cross, a walk-on who led Iowa in catches with 55 to earn All-Big Ten recognition in '92. Cross signed with the Washington Redskins as a free agent in '93.

Prior to joining Iowa, Hargrave tutored wide receivers for five seasons (1987-91) at the University of Houston, where the quarterback for most of that time was '89 Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware. During Hargrave's tenure with the Cougars, the school set 88 individual NCAA offensive records and 36 team NCAA marks. He also oversaw five first-team All-Americas and six first-team All-SWAC picks at Houston. Hargrave's first collegiate coaching assignment came at his alma mater Upper Iowa from 1977-80. He then joined Dennis Green's staff at Northwestern, where he worked for five seasons (1981-85) before moving on to Pittsburgh (1986). He began his coaching career at Central High in Waterloo, IA in '76.

A four-time All-Iowa Conference selection as a safety at Upper Iowa, he intercepted seven passes and posted a 25.3-yard kickoff return average and an 11.0-yard punt return average as a senior, when he was named the team's defensive MVP. He set a school record with a 94-yard kickoff return his freshman year and was drafted by the Raiders in 1976.

Born in Frankfurt, Germany (11/8/54), Hargrave starred at Iowa City High School. He earned his degree in physical education at UIU. Carl and wife Suzanne have two daughters – Alaysha (5/21/95) and Autumn (11/12/96).

John Kasper

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Keeping athletes at their peak physical performance over the duration of an NFL season is an imposing challenge. The week-to-week grind of playing professional football takes its toll on even the best-conditioned players. In his first season assisting Steve Wetzel with the team's strength and conditioning, John Kasper will be able use his knowledge and expertise to keep the Vikings' performance at a high level. Kasper's technical knowledge in the field of strength and conditioning made him a natural fit for the type of programs the Vikings employ, geared to maximize explosiveness and flexibility over the course of a grueling season.

Kasper enters his first NFL season after having spent three years working with the United States Bobsled Federation. As an athlete in the 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano, Japan, Kasper's team took 12th in the four-man sled competition. Among his many honors from competition, Kasper was a gold medallist in the World Push Championships four-man competition, a 1998 gold medallist in the US Olympic Trials four-man competition, a silver medallist in the 1997 World Cup in Nagano in the two-man, a 1996 silver medallist at the National Championships in the two-man and four-man and a bronze medallist in the two-man at the 1998 World Cup in St. Moritz, Switzerland. While with the Federation, Kasper also handled strength and conditioning duties with the other athletes, arranged facilities, meal planning and housing.

Kasper's energetic and positive approach made him a popular representative of the US Bobsled Federation where he served as a spokesperson for the organization to children's groups, schools and gave motivational speeches to adults. His attention to goal-setting, motivation and commitment accentuate his expertise in the field.

As a graduate assistant football coach at Central Missouri State from 1993-95, Kasper tutored receivers and coordinated recruiting efforts for the team as well as assisting with the squad's strength and conditioning. During his tenure with the Mules, Central Missouri went 14-5-1. A 1993 graduate of Upper Iowa University, the same school Viking running backs coach Carl Hargrave attended, Kasper was an All-Iowa Conference choice as a defensive back in 1990. A two-sport standout, he qualified for the 1992 and 1993 NCAA Division III Track and Field National Championships in the 400 meters. Kasper served as the Upper Iowa track team's captain in 1992-93 and was honored as its MVP in '92 and '93.

Kasper holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Upper Iowa and a master's degree in athletic and sports business administration from Central Missouri State. A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association since 1997, Kasper has most recently worked as a junior high school teacher in Belleville, IL. John and wife Sarah reside in Lakeville.

Tom Olivadotti

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Tom Olivadotti enters his 32nd year in the coaching field including his 15th in the NFL. In his previous 14 years in the NFL Olivadotti's clubs have made the playoffs nine times, won five division titles while compiling a 134-89 (.601) record. Including college Olivadotti has only been involved in one losing season in his last 18 years of coaching.

In 1998 Olivadotti oversaw Ed McDaniel, who made the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. He led the club in tackles (155) and finished tied for the team lead in tackles for a loss (15). McDaniel set a team record for sacks in a season by a linebacker with seven. He also coached Dwayne Rudd, who finished second on the club in tackles (113) and was selected second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. In '98 the Vikings defense shut out opponents in 29 of 73 quarters (including playoffs), held the opposition to 296 points (6th best in the NFL) and had the second best turnover ratio (+14) in the NFL.

In '97 Olivadotti oversaw McDaniel, who led the team in tackles (135) and tackles for a loss (11) and groomed '97 first-round draft pick Rudd into a starter for the final two regular season games and the playoffs. Rudd finished third on squad in sacks (5.0) despite playing only in nickel defense for most of the season. McDaniel moved from weakside linebacker to start in place of injured Jeff Brady in the middle prior to game vs. Detroit (12/14) while Rudd moved into McDaniel's former position. They were a big part of a Minnesota defense that held opponents to under 20 points in five straight games (9/28-11/2) during a Vikings six-game winning streak.

Olivadotti joined the Vikings after 11 seasons as an assistant coach in the NFL, including nine years (1987-95) as defensive coordinator of the Miami Dolphins. In his first year as the Vikings inside linebackers coach in '96, Olivadotti saw two of his players achieve career-highs for tackles in their first full season as a starter with the Vikings. Middle linebacker Jeff Brady, who had started only seven NFL games before '96, led the Vikings in tackles (146) and fumble recoveries (3). Despite missing two games, Dixon Edwards, who was acquired as a free agent in '96, finished second on the Vikings in tackles (122) and led the defense in tackles for a loss (8.5). They were a big part of a Minnesota defense that held opponents to 17-or-fewer points in nine games last year.

In '95 Olivadotti guided a Miami defense that tied for second in the NFL in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (7), was sixth in the league in third-down defense (34.2), tied for eighth in the NFL in fumbles recovered (16), was ninth in the league in defense inside the 20 (46.2% TDs) and tied for 10th in the NFL in fewest points allowed (332).

The Dolphins finished second in the AFC (6th in the NFL) in run defense by holding opponents to a team-record low 89.4 yards per game in '94. The previous record also was set by an Olivadotti-led defense, which limited opponents to 100.0 yards rushing per game in '92 to finish third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL against the run. In addition Miami tied for the league-lead in interceptions (23) in '94 and tied for 10th in the NFL in total defense (286.4) in '92.

When Miami posted a 12-4 record in '90, the defense ranked seventh in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (284.2). That marked the first time since '83 that the Dolphins finished higher than 19th in the league in total defense. Miami also placed second in the league in touchdown passes allowed (14), tied for second in touchdowns allowed (26), ranked fourth in points allowed (242), tied for fourth in sacks (45), and finished fifth in pass defense (169.8) in '90.

Prior to joining Miami, Olivadotti guided defensive backs for Cleveland in '86, when the Browns posted their best record (12-4) since '69 and advanced to the AFC Championship Game. That year both of Cleveland's starting cornerbacks — Hanford Dixon and Frank Minniefield — were voted to the Pro Bowl.

In his first season with the Browns in '85, Olivadotti tutored linebackers for a unit that finished seventh in the NFL in points allowed (294) and ninth in the league in total defense (309.9) to help Cleveland to their first AFC Central crown since '80. Two of Olivadotti's pupils were Clay Matthews, who was named to the Pro Bowl, and Chip Banks, who finished sixth in the AFC with 11 sacks.

In four seasons (1980-83) at the University of Miami, Olivadotti helped turn a program that hadn't won as many as nine games in a season in three decades into one of the best in the country. During that time he groomed 18 players who were drafted by the NFL. Olivadotti was the Hurricanes defensive coordinator in '83, when they beat Nebraska in the Orange Bowl to capture the first of the school's three national championships in the '80s.

His first collegiate coaching job came at Princeton, where he guided linebackers in '76 and the offensive line in '77, when he tutored two-time All-Ivy League guard Greg Bauman. He then oversaw linebackers while serving as defensive coordinator at Boston College for two years (1978-79) when he developed several future NFL players, including Pro Bowlers Fred Smerlas and Joe Nash.

Olivadotti began his coaching career at Pope Pius High School in New Jersey in 1967. He then moved on to Long Branch, NJ., High School (1968-70) and Red Bank, NJ, Catholic High School (1971). From 1972-75 he was the head coach at Salesianum Prep School in Wilmington, DE., which he led to the state title his first year at the helm.

A native of Long Branch, NJ (9/22/45), Olivadotti was a four-year starter at defensive back, linebacker and wide receiver at Upsala College, where he also lettered in baseball and track. He earned his degree in business from Upsala. Olivadotti played semi-pro football in the New Jersey area from 1967-71, while he was coaching high school football. He and wife Karen have a daughter, Kari Anne (9/30/70) and a son, Kirk (1/1/74), who played wide receiver for Purdue.

Andre Patterson

DEFENSIVE LINE

Andre Patterson has been with teams that have won division titles in each of his two seasons in the National Football League. Since entering the NFL in 1997 his club's have compiled a 25-7 (.781) record.

In his first year with the Vikings in 1998 Patterson led a defensive line that was a big part of the Vikings defense that shut out opponents in 29 of 73 quarters (including playoffs), held the opposition to 296 points (6th best in the NFL) and had the second best turnover ratio (+14) in the NFL. Patterson worked with defensive tackle John Randle, who the led the squad in sacks (10.5) and quarterback hurries (80). Second-year defensive tackle Tony Williams finished fourth on the club with nine tackles for a loss, defensive end Derrick Alexander had a career-high for sacks (7.5) and nose tackle Jerry Ball tied for the club lead in tackles for loss (15).

Patterson joined the Vikings for the 1998 season after spending the 1997 season as a defensive assistant with the New England Patriots. In his first season coaching in the NFL he helped guide the Patriots to a 10-6 record and the AFC Eastern division title.

Patterson spent most of his time working with defensive line coach Ray Hamilton. The Patriots finished the campaign with 45 sacks, the second highest total in team history. Former Viking Henry Thomas led the defensive line with seven sacks. New England's defense tied for fourth in the NFL in takeaways/giveaways (+10) and fifth in the NFL against the run.

Prior to joining the Patriots Patterson spent three seasons as the head coach at Cal-Poly-San Luis Obispo (1994-96). When he arrived at Cal-Poly in 1994, the school just made the jump from Division II to I-AA. In his first season as a head coach in '94, Patterson led the Mustangs to the American West Conference title with a 7-4 record. Patterson was named the American West Coach of the Year. The following year, the Mustangs continued to excel as they finished second in the country in passing yards (344.9 ypg) and in total offense (495.9 ypg), second only to Montana the eventual I-AA national champion. The Mustangs averaged 37.4 points per game, sixth in the country, and placed two players on the All-America team.

Prior to joining the Mustangs, Patterson coached the defensive line at Washington State University for two seasons (1992-93). While with the Cougars, Patterson coached three active NFL players (Chad Eaton, Lewis Bush and Donnie Sasa). The three players helped set a Pac-10 single-season record with 60 sacks in '92.

In 1990, Patterson joined the staff at Cornell for two seasons as the defensive line coach. In '90 Cornell claimed the Ivy League title, powered by a defensive unit which ranked second in the conference and set seven new school records in the process.

In 1989, Patterson held a one-year stint as the defensive coordinator at Western Washington University. That year his defense set a NAIA record for limiting an opponent to minus 9 yards passing in a game. Patterson coached the defensive line at Weber State in '88.

Patterson coached at St. Monica High school in Santa Monica California in '87 for two seasons. In '83 he accepted a teaching and coaching position at Renton High School in Washington where he served as the defensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1983-86.

Patterson's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, University of Montana, in 1982.

Patterson played two seasons at Contra Costa JC as an offensive lineman before transferring to Montana in 1981. He played one season at Montana before knee injuries ended his playing career.

Andre Patterson was born on June 12, 1960 in Camdon, AK. He was all-league center and nose guard at Harry Ells High School in Richmond. He earned his Associate of Art degree from Contra Costa Junior College in San Pablo, CA in 1980. Patterson received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from the University of Montana in 1983. He is a keynote speaker on Academics and Athletics for the National Rainbow Coalition Conventions with Reverend Jesse Jackson. Patterson coached El Cerreto boys baseball team to a second place finish to Cuba in the 1979 Little League World Series. Andre and his wife, Donna have one son Andre Jr. (5/19/92) and reside in Minnetonka, MN.

Mike Tice

OFFENSIVE LINE

In two seasons coaching the Vikings offensive line Mike Tice has guided three players to five Pro Bowl starts. In his three seasons coaching with the Vikings the team has compiled a 33-15 (.688) record and has made the playoffs each season.

In 1998 the offensive line paved the way for numerous Vikings records including points in a season (556), which also set a NFL record, touchdown passes (41), total yards (6,264) and fewest sacks allowed in a 16-game season (25). The offensive line cleared the way for Robert Smith to top the 1,000 yard mark for the second consecutive season with 1,187 yards on the ground. The Vikings rushed for over 100 yards in 13-of-the-18 games, including playoffs and broke the 150 yard barrier in five contests.

Three of the five starting offensive linemen in the 1999 Pro Bowl were Vikings. Randall McDaniel (NFL record 10th straight start), Todd Steussie (2nd appearance) and Jeff Christy (1st appearance) became the first Vikings trio of offensive linemen ever selected to the Pro Bowl let alone start.

In his first year coaching the offensive line in '97, Tice guided an offensive line that sent two starters to the 1998 Pro Bowl, Randall McDaniel (9th appearance) and Todd Steussie (1st appearance). The offensive line also enabled Robert Smith to break the team record for rushing yards in a season with 1,266.

The Vikings offensive line was a big factor in the squad gaining a first down on 18-of-19 carries on third or fourth down with less than three yards to go in '97. In 10-of-the-16 games the team rushed for over 100 yards. Tice's offensive line also finished third in the NFC in sacks per pass play (17.4 attempts per sack).

Tice helped coach the Vikings into the playoffs for the second straight season in '97 despite having to work with numerous line combinations due to injuries. Starting guard Dave Dixon missed three games and starting tackle Korey Stringer missed one game and were replaced by Scott Dill. Against the Jets (11/23) center Jeff Christy, who had started 62 consecutive games, suffered a season-ending broken ankle. Christy's replacement suffered a season-ending back injury the following week vs. the Packers (12/1) and was replaced by Everett Lindsay, who had never played center in a game at any level.

In '96 in addition to his duties as the Vikings tight ends coach, Tice conducted some drills with the offensive tackles during practices. Tice was instrumental in '96 in the development of rookie tight end Hunter Goodwin, who started the season's last six games when Minnesota went 4-2 to capture a playoff berth. Goodwin also helped running back Leroy Hoard rush for 420 yards, including two 100-yard efforts, over those final six games.

Not only did Tice catch 107 passes for 894 yards and 11 touchdowns during his 14 seasons in the National Football League, but he helped block for backs that rushed for over 1,000 yards in a season five times, including '92, when Terry Allen set a then Vikings season record with 1,201 yards, and '83, when Seattle's Curt Warner led the AFC with 1,449 yards.

The 6-foot, 7-inch Tice joined Minnesota's coaching staff in '96 after playing three seasons with the Vikings (1992-93, 1995), 10 years with Seattle (1981-88, 1990-91) and a campaign (1989) with Washington. He started in 109-of-the-177 NFL games he played.

In '95 Tice re-signed with the Vikings on December 7 after injuries depleted the team's tight end corps. He played in the final three games, including a start in the regular-season finale at Cincinnati (12/24), where he caught three passes for 22 yards. Tice originally retired following the '93 season.

Tice started 11 games in '93, when he caught six passes for 39 yards, including a 21-yard reception against Tampa Bay (10/10). His last touchdown catch came in San Francisco (10/3). In '92 Tice caught a career-long 34-yard touchdown pass in the final regular-season game against Green Bay (12/27). He started the first two games of the season then missed four games due to a back injury. He returned to start 7-of-the-final-10 games.

With Seattle in '91, Tice caught a career-high four touchdown passes to become the first tight end in Seahawks history to lead the team in scoring receptions. In '90 Tice was released by Washington on the final cut of preseason then signed by Seattle on November 28. He started two of the Seahawks' final five games in '90.

In '89 Tice signed with the Redskins as a Plan B free agent after catching 58 passes and starting 43-of-44 games for Seattle between '86 and '88. He posted a career-high 29 receptions for 244 yards in 16 starts in '88. He snared 14 passes, including a 27-yarder against the Jets (11/9), in '87. In the '86 season opener against Pittsburgh (9/7), Tice caught three passes for 44 yards. He had a season-long 25-yard reception vs. Denver (12/20) in the regular-season finale.

In '85 Tice was limited to nine games due to a broken ankle suffered against Atlanta (10/13). In only eight starts in '84, Tice caught three touchdown passes to set a Seattle season record for scoring receptions by a tight end. In '83 Tice helped the Seahawks advance to the AFC Championship Game, their best finish ever. Originally signed as a free agent quarterback by Seattle in '81, Tice was switched to tight end his rookie year.

As a two-year starter at quarterback at Maryland, Tice completed 71-of-140 passes for 928 yards with five touchdowns as a senior in 1980. He threw for 896 yards and five touchdowns as a junior.

Michael Peter Tice was born in Bayshore, NY (2/2/59) and attended Central Islip High School in Long Island. He lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. He was the recipient of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1987. His brother, John, was a tight end at Maryland and played for the New Orleans Saints. Mike and wife Diane have two children, Adrienne (8/4/87) and Nathan (7/28/89).

Trent Walters

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Since joining the Minnesota Vikings in 1994, Trent Walters has worked with four different starters at strongside linebacker. Despite the changes, that position has combined to contribute 393 tackles, 20 passes defensed, 18 tackles for a loss, 10.5 sacks, 7 fumble recoveries and 5 forced fumbles, while the Vikings have posted a 51-29 (.638) record and made the playoffs four times over the past five years.

In '98 Walters helped coach a Viking defense that only gave up 296 points (6th best in the NFL) and shut out opponents in 29 of a possible 73 quarters, including playoffs. 1998 second-round draft pick Kailee Wong played in passing situations and finished the season with 13 tackles, 1.5 sacks and nine quarterback pressures. He also finished fifth on the squad in special team tackles with 12. Wong was a collegiate teammate of Trent's son Troy at Stanford

In '97 strongside starter Dixon Edwards started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests. He finished the season with 72 tackles and tied for second on the club in forced fumbles with two. Edwards helped a defense that held opponents to under 20 points in five straight games (9/28-11/2) during a Vikings six-game winning streak.

In '96 projected strongside starter Edwards was moved to the weakside in training camp due to a season-ending injury to Ed McDaniel. The Vikings then signed Darryl Talley to replace Edwards, however Talley missed the first two games due to a knee injury. Dave Garnett then stepped in and started his first NFL game in the Vikings win at Atlanta (9/8). Garnett also started in place of Talley in Minnesota's victory at Detroit (12/8).

The Vikings defense still limited opponents to 70 fewer points in '96 than in '95. Minnesota also held its opposition to 17-or-fewer points in nine games last year. In the regular-season home finale against Tampa Bay (12/15), Minnesota limited the Buccaneers to the fewest total yards (169) by an opponent since Oct. 20, 1994. The Vikings finished third in the NFL in third-down defense (33.2%), sixth in the league in sacks (43) and tied for seventh in takeaways (35) in '96.

In '95 the Vikings finished second in the league in takeaways (40), fourth in the NFL in run defense (83.1) and tied for fourth in the league in sacks (44). In '94 Minnesota led the NFL in run defense, holding opponents to the fewest rushing yards per game (68.1) in the league in 30 years. The Vikings also led the NFL in yards allowed per carry (3.1) and ranked fifth total defense (296.4) in '94.

During Walters' three seasons (1991-93) as defensive backs coach at Texas A&M, the Aggies led the SWC in total defense, rush defense, pass defense and scoring defense to become only the second school in NCAA history to lead its conference in all four categories for three straight years.

In '93 Texas A&M led the nation in pass defense, finished second in points allowed (10.8 per game) and third in total defense (247.6). The Aggies also held opponents to a paltry 39.7% completion rate and five touchdown passes, while grabbing 13 interceptions in '93. In '91 they held opponents to the fewest yards per game in the nation.

Among Walters' pupils at Texas A&M were cornerbacks Kevin Smith, a 1991 All-American who now plays for the Dallas Cowboys, and Aaron Glenn, the '93 Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year, who was drafted by the Jets with the 12th overall pick in '94. In addition cornerback Ray Mickens and safety Michael Hendricks earned first-team all-conference selection, while safety Junior White was a second-team All-SWC pick, in '93.

Including those four selections, Walters produced seven first-team All-SWC picks. He also tutored seven NFL draft choices — including first-rounders Patrick Bates, Smith, and Glenn — during his three seasons with Texas A&M.

Before joining the Aggies, Walters guided the secondary for five years (1986-90) at Louisville, where he helped turn around a Cardinals program from 3-8 in '86 to 10-1-1 in '90. In his final season at Louisville, the team won a school-record 10 games, played its first postseason game (Fiesta Bowl) since '77 and captured its first bowl victory (34-7 over Alabama) since '70.

One of Walters' star pupils with the Cardinals was Ray Buchanan who was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player of the 1991 Fiesta Bowl as a sophomore. He earned NFL All-Rookie honors with Indianapolis in '93, finished third in the league with eight interceptions in '94 and was named to the '98 Pro Bowl following his terrific season with the Atlanta Falcons.

Walters began his coaching career overseeing the freshmen and junior varsity team at his alma mater Indiana in '68. He coached defensive backs at Louisville in '72 before returning to Indiana to guide the Hoosiers secondary for eight years (1973-80). In three seasons (1981-83) as defensive backs coach at the University of Washington, Walters groomed future NFL players Vince Newsome, Ray Horton, Vince Albritton and Vestee Jackson.

In '84 Walters received his first pro coaching opportunity tutoring defensive backs at Cincinnati. He then guided the secondary for a season (1985) at the University of Pittsburgh, where he worked under Vikings defensive coordinator Foge Fazio, who was the Panthers' head coach at the time.

In '66 and '67 Walters led the Canadian Football League in punt and kickoff return yardage while playing for an Edmonton team that was coached by former Vikings assistant Neill Armstrong.

A three-year letterman at Indiana, Walters led the Hoosiers in punt and kickoff returns as a senior in '65. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and biology and his master's in physical education administration from Indiana. Walters is a member of the Sports Hall of Fame in Knoxville, TN, where he attended Austin High School. Trent and wife Gail have three children — Trent (7/1/74), Vanessa (7/25/75) and Troy (12/15/76), an All Pac-10 wide receiver/punt returner and All Pac-10 Academic team honoree at Stanford.

Steve Wetzel

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Since Steve Wetzel joined the Minnesota Vikings as strength and conditioning coach in 1992, the quality of his program has been evident in the team's performance in the fourth quarter and late in the season. Another indicator of the job Wetzel has done in Minnesota is that three of his assistants — Mike Wolf (Philadelphia), Mark Asanovich (Tampa Bay) and Jeff Friday (Baltimore) — have gone on to become head strength and conditioning coaches in the NFL.

In Wetzel's seventh season with Minnesota in 1998 the team started the season with seven straight victories and ended the season even stronger with eight consecutive wins. The team finished with the best record in franchise history with a 15-1 record and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987.

In '97 the Vikings had the greatest postseason comeback in team history, coming back from 16 points down to defeat the N.Y. Giants 23-22. The Vikings won four games in '97, including playoffs, in which they trailed entering the fourth quarter.

Over the past five years, the Vikings have posted one of the best December records (19-10) in the NFL. In '93 Minnesota won their final three regular-season games for the first time since '74. Last season the Vikings won their final eight regular season games and made the playoffs for the sixth time in seven seasons.

Minnesota also has played well in the fourth quarter the past six years. Prior to the Vikings' 21-20 win over Chicago on Oct. 4, 1992 after falling behind 20-0 entering the final quarter, Minnesota had lost 10 straight games that they trailed after three quarters. The Vikings' not only have won 17 games that they trailed in the fourth quarter since '92 but are 56-10 with a lead entering the final period over the past seven seasons.

In '96 Minnesota began the season 4-0 despite not leading entering the fourth quarter in any of those games. The biggest victory in that stretch came against eventual Super Bowl Champion Green Bay on September 22, when the Vikings won, 30-21, after trailing by a 21-17 margin entering the final period.

In his nine seasons in the NFL, Wetzel has been with teams that have gone 95-49 (.660) and made the playoffs eight times, including '91 when he was on the coaching staff of Washington's Super Bowl XXVI Championship team. In his two seasons (1990-91) as assistant strength coach for the Redskins, the team posted a 28-9 (.757) record, including playoffs.

Before joining Washington, Wetzel spent four months as strength coach for George Mason University. He was the assistant strength coach at the University of Maryland from 1985-89. In his first season there, the Terrapins finished 9-2 and defeated Syracuse in the Cherry Bowl.

Wetzel earned his degree in physical education/sports management from Slippery Rock University, where he was a power lifter. He is a former record holder in the bench press in the American Drug Free Power Lifting Association. In '98 Wetzel received the President's Award for contributions to his profession as selected by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society. A native of Washington, DC (5/11/63), Steve Wetzel attended Park View High School in Sterling, VA. Steve and wife Michelle live in Eden Prairie.

Alex Wood

QUARTERBACKS

Alex Wood joins the Vikings and the NFL in 1999 after a long career at the collegiate level. Wood will oversee the Vikings quarterbacks which include last year's Miller Lite Player of the Year Randall Cunningham, veteran Jeff George who has thrown for over 23,000 yards in his nine-year career, 1999 NFL Europe League standout Todd Bouman as well as this year's first round draft choice Daunte Culpepper.

Wood previously was the head coach at James Madison University from 1995-98. In his first season as a head coach in '95 he led the Dukes to an 8-4 record and an appearance in the NCAA Division 1-AA Playoffs. James Madison finished with 6-2 record in the Yankee Conference and finished the season ranked 15th nationally after losing 31-24 at then-unbeaten Appalachian State in the Division I-AA playoffs' first round. On the '95 team both placekicker John Coursey and tight end Ed Perry received All-America recognition. Coursey was placed on the Yankee Conference's 50th Season Anniversary Team in the summer of '96. Three players from the '95 squad signed with NFL team including quarterback Mike Cawley, the team's most valuable player, who was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the sixth-round.

In '96 Perry along with wide receiver Macey Brooks and return specialist Jay Jones were named to the first team All-Yankee squad. Perry received first-team All-America honors for the second straight year, and Brooks set a school season record with 14 touchdown receptions. Three players signed with NFL teams after the '96 campaign, including two who were drafted (Brooks, 4th round, Dallas; Perry, 6th round, Miami).

In 1997 James Madison had players named to four positions on the All-Atlantic 10 teams, including first-team choices in safety Tony Booth and return specialist Delvin Joyce. In '98 free safety Tony Booth received All-America and All-Conference honors. James Madison lost 26-28 to Massachusetts which went on to win the Division 1-AA National Championship.

Wood finished his career at James Madison with 23-22 record. Prior to coming to James Madison in '95 he worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wake Forest from 1993-94. Wake Forest led the ACC in offense in '93 behind quarterback Rusty LaRue who went on to play with the Chicago Bulls on the 1997-98 NBA championship team.

From 1989-92 Wood coached the running backs at the University of Miami. In his four seasons the team won two national championships (1989, 1991) and compiled a 44-4 (.917) record. In '90 the squad finished third in the country and in '92 they finished sixth. Prior to the University of Miami, Wood coached tight ends at Washington State (1987-88), coached wide receivers and tight ends at Wyoming (1985-86) and coached the defensive backfield at Southern University (1982-84). At Southern he coached Michael Ball who went on to play for the Indianapolis Colts (1988-93).

Wood played at Iowa from 1975-77 where he was a running back and special teamer. Both head coach Dennis Green and defensive backs coach Richard Solomon were coaching at Iowa at the time. A native of Massillon, OH (3/14/55), Alex Wood attended Washington High School where he lettered twice as a running back and linebacker. He was an all-state nominee at running back. Wood also lettered twice in wrestling. He and his wife, Rosa, have three children, Jerrel (1/9/73), Alex (9/5/73) and Natalie (4/4/86).

Wood's Background
Player: Iowa 1975-77.
Coach: Iowa 1978, Kent 1979-80, Southern Illinois 1981, Southern University 1982-84, Wyoming 1985-86, Washington State 1987-88, Miami 1989-92, Wake Forest 1993-94, James Madison 1995-98 (Head Coach).

Gary Zauner

SPECIAL TEAMS

Since Gary Zauner came to the Minnesota Vikings in 1994 as special teams coach he has helped produce five National Football League records and numerous team records. In his five seasons with the club he has coached two different kickers (Gary Anderson and Fuad Reveiz) to the Pro Bowl. Even more impressive is that this is Zauner's first full-time NFL coaching assignment.

In 1998 Zauner guided kicker Gary Anderson to the first perfect season by a kicker in NFL history. He made all 35 of his field goal attempts on the season and 40 in row dating back to 1997 and converted on all 59 of his extra point attempts. Anderson surpassed the NFL record of 31 straight field goals previously held by former Viking Fuad Reveiz who was also coached by Zauner. Anderson also set the NFL record for points in a season by a kicker with 164. He was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his career and was named to every All-Pro team.

Zauner also guided punter/kickoff specialist Mitch Berger who led the NFL in touchbacks with 40 which is a NFL record since the kickoff was moved to the 30-yard line in 1993. Berger was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November. He set Vikings single-game records for punting average (55.8) and net punting average (48.2) vs. Cincinnati (11/15). He finished third in the NFC in punting with a career-high 44.7 average and tied for second in the NFC for fewest touchbacks with five. Return specialist David Palmer returned the Vikings first kickoff for a touchdown since 1989 with a 88-yarder vs. Baltimore (12/13).

In '97 Zauner guided kickers Greg Davis and Eddie Murray and punter/kickoff specialist Berger. He also oversaw quarterback Randall Cunningham at the punter position in place of the injured Berger for the season's first two games. Murray surpassed the NFL record for consecutive extra points of 234 previously held by Tommie Davis vs. Carolina (10/12). Murray received NFC Special Teams Player of the Week vs. Arizona (10/5) and in the playoff contest vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/27). Berger finished fifth in the NFC in punting with a 42.9 average. Cunningham had a 65-yard punt in the season opener at Buffalo (8/31).

Harold Morrow set a team record for special teams tackles in a season in '97 with 32. Punt returner Palmer finished first in the NFC in punt return average (13.1) for the second time in his career. The Vikings had three different players (Palmer, Morrow, Moe Williams) with at least one kickoff return of 40-or-more yards in '97.

In '96 Zauner oversaw kicker Scott Sisson and punter/kickoff specialist Berger, who each were in his first season with the Vikings. Sisson made 22-of-29 field goals, including all four of his attempts in the last two minutes or overtime. Berger finished fifth in the NFL in punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line (26) and tied for fourth in touchbacks on kickoffs (17).

In '95 Zauner guided Fuad Reveiz, who set league records at the time for consecutive field goals (31) and consecutive field goals of 45-or-less yards (39). The Vikings placed a player among the top two in the NFC in punt return average (David Palmer) and kickoff return average (Qadry Ismail) for the first time in the same season in team history in '95. Palmer became the first Minnesota player to lead the league in punt returns with a team season record 13.2-yard average. At Detroit (11/23) he brought back a punt 74 yards for a touchdown, the first score on a punt return by a Vikings player since '87. Ismail finished second in the conference in kickoff returns in '95 with a 24.7 average. It was the highest finish by a Minnesota player since '83.

In '94 punter Mike Saxon, who Zauner tutored at San Diego State, tied a team season record for punts inside the 20-yard line with 28, which was good for second in the NFC. Reveiz made 34-of-39 (87.2%) field goal attempts and tallied 132 points to earn All-Pro honors and his first trip to the Pro Bowl in '94.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Zauner was a kicking and special teams consultant for many NFL teams and players. Among the Pro Bowl kickers he has advised are John Kasay, Chris Gardocki, Cary Blanchard, Ralf Mojsiejenko, Eddie Murray and David Treadwell. In addition Zauner worked with All-Pros John Carney, Mike Horan, Jeff Jaeger, Chip Lohmiller and Nick Lowery. Zauner also helped Doug Brien and Pat O'Neil, who earned all-rookie recognition.

Others with whom Zauner has consulted are placekickers Kevin Butler, Brad Daluiso, Greg Davis, Lin Elliott, Mick Luckhurst and Steve McLaughlin, and punters Bryan Barker, Maury Buford and Klaus Wilmsmeyer.

From 1990-91 Zauner guided special teams at Long Beach State, where he was hired by George Allen, the legendary special teams enthusiast who revolutionized the coaching of the kicking units. In '90 Sean Cheevers earned second-team All-Big West honors to become the first 49ers kicker to earn all-conference recognition since '83.

Prior to joining Long Beach State, Zauner spent three seasons (1987-89) guiding special teams at the University of New Mexico, where he developed kicker Rick Walsh, an All-Western Athletic Conference pick who played in the East/West Shrine Game in '89. Zauner also developed current Falcons wide receiver Terance Mathis, who tied a NCAA season record for touchdowns on kickoff returns with three for the Lobos in '89.

From 1981-85 Zauner helped turn the special teams at San Diego State into one of the best in the nation. In his five seasons there, Zauner's coverage units never allowed a touchdown. The longest kickoff return San Diego State gave up during that time was a meager 42 yards.

In '83 Jim Sandusky led the country in punt returns (19.0 avg.). Zauner also developed Chris O'Brien who set a WAC record with 25 consecutive field goals in 1984-85. Saxon set school marks for longest punt and for punting average in a career, season and game.

Zauner's first coaching assignment came from 1979-80 at Brigham Young, where he recruited punter/placekicker Lee Johnson, a fifth-round draft choice by Houston in '85. In '79 the Cougars led the nation in kickoff returns (26.3 avg.). Zauner also guided Clay Brown who topped the nation in punting with a 45.3 average in '79.

A four-year letterman in football and baseball at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, Zauner went to training camp as a punter with the Vikings in '73 and the Houston Oilers in '74.

Born in Milwaukee, WI, (11/2/50), Gary Zauner attended Hamilton High School. He earned bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from Wisconsin-La Crosse.

Zauner's Background
Player: Wisconsin-LaCrosse 1968-72.
Coach: Brigham Young 1979-80, San Diego State 1981-86, New Mexico 1987-88, Long Beach State 1990-91, Minnesota Vikings 1994-Present.

Frank Gilliam

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Frank Gilliam has been a big factor in the success of the Vikings' drafts over the past 29 years. After being named Vice President, Player Personnel in January, 1994, he has overseen six outstanding drafts. Of the 25 players selected by Minnesota in the past three drafts, 22 are still with Minnesota and all 25 are still playing in the National Football League. Of the 13 players still on the club selected prior to the 1999 draft, seven have started games at some point during their careers.

In addition to coordinating the annual college draft, Gilliam oversees both the college and pro scouting departments. He also serves on the NFL's College Relations Committee.

Thirteen of the players (Randy Moss, 1st round; Dwayne Rudd, 1st , 1997; Torrian Gray, 2nd, '97, Stalin Colinet, 3rd, '97; Tony Williams, 5th, '97; Hunter Goodwin, 3rd, '96; Derrick Alexander, 1st, '95; Korey Stringer, 1st, '95; Orlando Thomas, 2nd, '95; Corey Fuller, 2nd, '95; Dewayne Washington, 1st, '94; Todd Steussie, 1st, '94; Andrew Jordan, 6th, '94) selected in the five drafts prior to the 1999 draft became starters as rookies. Six (Washington, Steussie, Jordan, Stringer, Thomas and Moss) of those players earned all-rookie honors.

Minnesota's '94 draft yielded three all-rookie selections (Dewayne Washington, 1st round; Todd Steussie, 1st; Andrew Jordan, 6th). The success of a late-round selections has been a trademark of the team's drafts since Gilliam joined the club as Scouting Director in '71. He was promoted to Director of Player Personnel in '75.

Scott Studwell (9th, '77), Joe Senser (6th, '79), Wade Wilson (8th, '81), Steve Jordan (7th, '82), Carl Lee (7th, '83), Steve Bono (6th, '85), Terry Allen (9th, '90), John Randle (FA, '90) and Todd Scott (6th, '91) each played in at least one Pro Bowl. Other notable late round selections include Stu Voigt (10th, '70), Ed McDaniel (5th, '92) and Brad Johnson (9th, '92). Minnesota also made the playoffs 6-of-the-past-7 seasons despite not having a first-round choice from 1989-92.

Prior to coming to Minnesota, Gilliam tutored wide receivers from 1966-70 at Iowa, where he recruited and coached current Vikings head coach Dennis Green. While teaching at Lord Tennyson Elementary/Junior High School in Vancouver from 1962-65, Gilliam coached the North Shore Cougars, a Canadian junior football team.

A seventh-round draft choice by Green Bay in '57, Gilliam spent three seasons with Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League, where he played for former Minnesota head coach Bud Grant and was a teammate of Leo Lewis, Sr., whose son Leo, Jr. is a former Vikings wide receiver and the team's current Director of Player Relations. The Blue Bombers played in the Grey Cup game in '57 and won the league championship in '58 and '59. Gilliam played for Vancouver of the CFL from 1960-61.

Named as a defensive end on the University of Iowa's all-time team, Gilliam helped the Hawkeyes to the Big Ten title in '56, when he earned All-Big Ten and second-team All-America honors. In the ensuing Rose Bowl, the school's first bowl game, Iowa beat Oregon State, 35-19, to finish third in the nation.

During that '56 season, the Hawkeyes' defense held opponents to 8.4 points per game, the lowest ever at the school, and 229.8 yards per game, third fewest in Iowa's history. Gilliam, who played in the '57 Hula Bowl, was also a member of the '53 Iowa squad that ended the year ranked ninth in the country. He led the Hawkeyes in receiving in '53 and '54.

Gilliam (1/7/34) attended Steubenville, OH., High School. His nephew is Joe Gilliam, Jr., who played quarterback for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-75. He and wife Velma have three children, Frank, Jr., Gayle, and Michelle and one granddaughter, Ariel.

Paul Wiggin

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In over three decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been a part of many teams that have finished among the league's best. Wiggin is responsible for league-wide player evaluation and advance scouting of opponents.

During his 14 years with Minnesota, the team has won four NFC Central titles and qualified for the playoffs nine times, including 6-of-the-past-7 seasons. Wiggin originally joined the Vikings in '85 as defensive line coach, a position he held for seven seasons. During that stint, Minnesota led the league in total defense twice ('88 and '89).

In '87 the Vikings advanced to the NFC Championship Game before losing 17-10 to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In '89 the Vikings posted 71 sacks, the second most in a season in NFL history. Defensive end Chris Doleman set a league season record with 21 sacks, while defensive tackle Keith Millard added 18 sacks – the third most in a season in NFL history — in '89. In addition to Doleman and Millard, Wiggin also helped develop Pro Bowl defensive tackles Henry Thomas and John Randle.

Wiggin came to Minnesota after working with the highly-successful Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee in '84. From 1980-83 Wiggin was head coach at Stanford, where he oversaw future NFL first-round draft choices John Elway, Darrin Nelson and Brian Holloway. In Wiggin's first season with the Cardinal, his offensive coordinator was Dennis Green.

In 1978-79 Wiggin was the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. After not winning more than five games in any of their previous 11 seasons, the Saints posted seven victories in '78 and eight wins in '79.

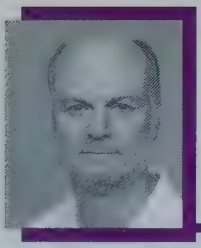
His first head coaching opportunity came at the helm of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1975-77. Wiggin's first NFL win came by a 42-10 margin over Oakland who captured the AFC West title in '75. The Chiefs then went on to win three straight and five-of-their-next seven games, including a 34-31 upset of that year's NFC Champion Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football at Texas Stadium.

Immediately after retiring from his playing career in '68, Wiggin became the defensive line coach in San Francisco. Despite inheriting a 49ers squad that hadn't been to the playoffs since '57, Wiggin was part of a staff that guided San Francisco to three straight division titles from 1970-72 and the NFC Championship Game in '70 and '71. During his stint there, Wiggin tutored the top two sackers (Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart) in 49ers history. Hardman also set a team season record for sacks with 18 in '71. In '74 Wiggin was promoted to defensive coordinator in San Francisco.

In 11 seasons (1957-67) as a defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight regular season games, which stood as a team record when he retired. His 18 career fumble recoveries still rank as the second most in Browns history. During his tenure there, Cleveland played in three NFL title games, including a 27-0 win over Baltimore in '64. He started in the Pro Bowl in '65 and '67. In addition Wiggin was named the team's outstanding defensive player in '63, the Browns' Player of the Year in '66 and the Cleveland Pro Athlete of the Year in '67.

The Browns drafted Wiggin as a future pick in the sixth round in '56. As a three-year starter at tackle for Stanford, Wiggin earned first-team All-PAC 10 and first-team All-America honors in both '55 and '56. He also played rugby for the Cardinal.

A native of Modesto, CA (11/18/34), Paul David Wiggin competed in four sports and was the Most Outstanding Athlete at Manteca, CA, Union High School in '52. He also set league records in the shot put as a prepster. Wiggin earned his bachelor's degree from Stanford in '56 and his master's in education from Stanford in '59. During his offseasons as a player, he taught high school and college classes, and coached defensive tackles at spring practice for Stanford. He and wife Carolynn have three children — Kymberly (3/22/61), Kristyn (6/6/63) and Kellie (7/4/67) — and five grandchildren.



Conrad Cardano

REGIONAL SCOUT

After working as an assistant coach with some highly-successful collegiate programs, Conrad Cardano brought some of that winning magic to the Vikings when he joined the organization in 1987. He currently is a Regional Scout looking at prospects in the Southeast and Northeast regions of the country.

Since joining Minnesota, Cardano has helped build a team that has made the playoffs nine times, including NFC Central titles in '89, '92, '94 and '98. In '87 the team advanced to the NFC Championship Game before losing to eventual Super Bowl champion Washington at RFK and in '98 the squad advanced to the NFC Championship Game against the Atlanta Falcons.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Cardano worked three years (1984-86) for the Blesto scouting combine.

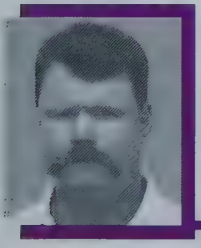
From 1981-83 he coached receivers, tight ends and quarterbacks in the passing game at Eastern Kentucky, which won the Ohio Valley Conference title each of his three seasons there. The Colonels captured the NCAA Division I-AA championship in '82, when they went 13-0, garnering the most wins in a season in school history. Eastern Kentucky also set a school mark for consecutive wins (18) in '82-83.

Cardano joined Eastern Kentucky after two seasons (1979-80) overseeing wide receivers at Marshall.

His first collegiate coaching job came as offensive coordinator at Catholic University from 1975-78. In Cardano's first year there, the Cardinals posted their most wins (8) since '39. He also helped the school to a combined 26 10 record and four straight winning seasons for the first time since 1937-40. Cardano tutored two All-America quarterbacks with the Cardinals.

While playing quarterback for the Hagarstown Bears of the Seaboard Pro League from 1972-74, Cardano coached at Tuscola High School in Waynesville, NC and Dover-Sherborn High School in Dover, MA. He played quarterback at Western Carolina from 1967-71.

Born in Washington, DC (8/18/48), Cardano attended Bladensburg, MD, High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Western Carolina. In 1980 Cardano received his master's in education administration and supervision from Bowie, MD, State University. His wife's name is Gloria. Cardano has two sons — Christopher (8/7/83) and Anthony (7/31/88).



John Fitzpatrick

REGIONAL SCOUT

John Fitzpatrick joined the Vikings as an Area Scout in 1993 after he spent seven seasons (1986-92) working with the National Scouting Combine. In his six years with Minnesota, the team has made the playoffs five times, including NFC Central titles in '94 and '98 and a trip to the NFC Championship game in '98. Fitzpatrick became a Regional Scout in 1999.

In '85 Fitzpatrick was a graduate assistant coach working with the offensive line at Arizona State. That year the Sun Devils posted an 8-3 record to earn a trip to play Arkansas in the Holiday Bowl. Three starters — Randall McDaniel, Todd Kalis, Danny Villa — on Arizona State's offensive line that year were drafted by the NFL.

Signed as a free agent by Dallas in '84, Fitzpatrick suffered a knee injury in preseason and spent his rookie year on the Cowboys' injured reserve list.

Fitzpatrick played guard for two seasons (1982-83) at Purdue, where he blocked for running back Mel Gray, a future All-Pro return man in the NFL, and quarterback Scott Campbell, the Boilermakers' second all-time leading passer. Vikings offensive coordinator Ray Sherman was on Purdue's coaching staff during Fitzpatrick's stint there.

Prior to transferring to Purdue, Fitzpatrick set a Western Athletic Conference record for weightlifting at Wyoming.

Born in Chicago, IL (6/6/61), John W. Fitzpatrick attended Greencastle, IN, High School. He earned his degree in criminal law from Purdue. John and his wife, Liz, reside in Fischer, TX.

Roger Jackson

REGIONAL SCOUT

In 14 seasons as either a player or scout in the National Football League, Roger Jackson has been associated with teams that have made the playoffs nine times, including five division winners, four trips to the AFC or NFC Championship Games and one Super Bowl appearance.

Jackson joined the Vikings in 1994 after two years (1992-93) as a scout with Kansas City. The Chiefs went 10-6 both seasons and won the division title in '93 before losing in the AFC Championship Game.

In 1990-91 Jackson scouted for Denver, who in '91 won the AFC West crown with a 12-4 record then advanced to the conference championship game.

As defensive backs coach at Howard University in '89, Jackson groomed Sean Vanhorse, a sixth-round draft choice by Miami in '90 who played in the NFL for the past five seasons, including 1996 with the Vikings.

Signed as a rookie free agent by Denver in '82, Jackson played 53 games over five seasons with the Broncos. In '83 he started three games and recorded 56 tackles, an interception and a sack to help Denver to its first playoff appearance since '79. In '84 he played for Denver's AFC West Title team. Although he wasn't with the squad during the playoffs, Jackson played for the '87 Broncos who advanced to Super Bowl XXII.

A four-year letterman as a defensive back and return man at Bethune-Cookman, Jackson served as a team captain his senior year with the Wildcats. He also earned two letters in track as a long jumper in college.

Roger Jackson is a native of Macon, GA (2/28/59), where he lettered three times in football and track and once in basketball at Central High School. He earned his degree in physical education from Bethune-Cookman. Roger has a daughter, Andrika (10/21/77).

Silas McKinnie

REGIONAL SCOUT

Silas McKinnie joins the Vikings for the 1999 season after spending 20 seasons as a college basketball coach. Smith will be a Regional Scout with the Vikings where his main emphasis will be the middle of the country.

McKinnie most recently coached at the University of Miami (1994-96). He arrived at Miami after serving one season at the University of Tennessee (1993-94). Prior to his appointment at Tennessee, McKinnie had assistant coaching jobs at San Diego State (1992-93), Minnesota (1988-92), South Alabama (1984-87), Alabama (1982-84) Rice (1981-82) and Kentucky State (1977-80). He was the head coach at Kentucky State from 1980-81. McKinnie was also the Assistant Athletic Director at South Alabama for the 1986-87 season.

At Minnesota and Alabama McKinnie was part of staffs that led teams to the NCAA Tournament. In 1990 Minnesota advanced to the regional finals, achieving the school's best finish in the tournament at the time. McKinnie was also responsible for recruiting most of the players that helped the Gophers win the 1993 NIT Championship.

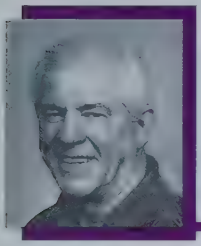
Additionally, McKinnie played an instrumental role in the development of current NBA players Derrick McKey (Indiana Pacers), Voshon Lenard (Miami Heat) and Ed Gray (Atlanta Hawks) and former NBA players Walter Bond (Utah Jazz), Willie Burton (Miami Heat and Philadelphia 76ers) and Bob Martin (L.A. Clippers).

McKinnie has spent the past four years as the Director of Sales and Customer Relations for Active Transportation in Detroit.

McKinnie played football at the University of Iowa from 1965-67, where he was coached by current Vikings Vice President of Player Personnel Frank Gilliam and a teammate of Dennis Green and Richard Solomon. McKinnie earned All-Big 10 honors as a running back and graduated in 1968 with a B.A. in speech and dramatic arts.

Following graduation, McKinnie played five seasons of professional football with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League (1968-71, '73). He signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1972 but played the season with the Atlanta Falcons and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Born Silas Anthony McKinnie (1/24/46) in Detroit, MI. He attended Robichaud High School in Dearborn, MI, where he earned all-state honors in both football and basketball. He has a daughter, Ixchel, and a son, Lance.



Jerry Reichow

NATIONAL SCOUT

Jerry Reichow has been a big part of an organization that has consistently fielded playoff teams over the past three decades. After playing four seasons with the Vikings (1961-64), Reichow was named the team's Director of Player Personnel in 1966. In the past he was the Director of Football Operations in '75 and then became Assistant General Manager, National Scouting in '92. Reichow is currently a National Scout looking at prospects throughout the country.

During his off-the-field tenure with the Vikings, Reichow's main contributions have come in the college draft. Not only has Minnesota done well with its early choices, but the team has had great success in finding top players with its late-round selections.

Among those selections are Bobby Bryant (7th round, 1967), Scott Studwell (9th, '77), Joe Senser (6th, '79), Wade Wilson (8th, '81), Steve Jordan (7th, '82), Carl Lee (7th, '83), Steve Bono (6th, '85), Terry Allen (9th, '90), John Randle (FA, '90), Todd Scott (6th, '91) and Ed McDaniel (5th, '92) who each have been selected to at least one Pro Bowl. Other notable late round selections include Stu Voigt (10th, '70) and Brad Johnson (9th, '92). Since '94 six Minnesota players have made the NFL's all-rookie team.

Reichow originally was acquired by Minnesota in '61 from Washington for a seventh-round draft choice. His best year came in his initial campaign with the Vikings when he caught 50 passes for 859 yards and 11 touchdowns to become one of Minnesota's first two Pro Bowl selections. Reichow finished 12th in the NFL in catches and tied for fourth in the league in scoring receptions in '61. The 11 touchdown catches stood as the team's season record until Cris Carter surpassed it in '95. Reichow also led the Vikings in scoring in '61.

Against Chicago on Dec. 17, 1961, Reichow became the first Minnesota player to catch three touchdown passes in a game. He also led the Vikings in catches in '62 despite missing two games. In '63 he caught a career-long 57-yard scoring toss from Fran Tarkenton against the Rams (10/20) at the L.A. Coliseum.

In four seasons as a wide receiver and tight end with Minnesota, Reichow caught 144 passes for 2,183 yards and 19 touchdowns, which all were team career records when he retired.

Drafted by Detroit in the fourth round in '56, Reichow played quarterback, tight end and receiver during his four seasons with the Lions, whom he helped capture the NFL title in '57. In '60 he was traded to Philadelphia, where he was a teammate of Norm Van Brocklin on the Eagles' squad that won the league championship. The next year he was dealt to Washington who immediately sent him to Minnesota, where Van Brocklin had just been named head coach.

As a senior at Iowa, Reichow finished seventh in the nation in total offense with 1,091 yards. In '55 he was named the team's most valuable player, played in the Senior Bowl and earned most valuable player honors at the East-West Shrine Game. He finished his collegiate career with a then-school record 2,177 yards in total offense. In '54 and '55, he led the Hawkeyes in both passing and interceptions.

In '53 he was part of an Iowa team that was ranked ninth in the nation. Reichow was a teammate of current Vikings Vice President, Player Personnel Frank Gilliam at Iowa.

Garet Neal Reichow is a native of Decorah, IA (5/19/34), where he attended Decorah High School. He was a member of the University of Iowa basketball team that progressed to the Final Four in '55. Jerry and wife Carolyn have three children Alan (9/22/52), Lori (10/10/56) and Jimmie (11/1/69).

Jeff Robinson

PRO PERSONNEL SCOUT

In 1999 Jeff Robinson enters his 10th season with the Minnesota Vikings and his fourth year as the team's Pro Personnel Scout. As part of his current duties, Robinson assists Director of Pro Personnel Paul Wiggin with league-wide player evaluation and advance scouting of opponents.

After joining the Vikings as a public relations intern in 1990, Robinson worked two seasons (1991-92) as a Public Relations Assistant then three years (1993-95) as Operations Assistant. He was named to his current post in June, 1996. Since joining the player personnel department the club has made the playoffs the last three seasons, won the NFC Central title in '98 and advanced to the NFC Championship game in '98.

In 1989-90 Robinson was an assistant coach at North High School in Minneapolis. He also played part of the '89 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

A three-year starter at cornerback at Northwestern, Robinson served as a team captain and was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick as a senior in 1988. In the Wildcats' 28-10 win over Illinois (11/21) in '87, he returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown, which at the time was the seventh longest such return in school history and the longest interception return by a Northwestern player since '63.

As a starter in all 11 games at right cornerback as a sophomore, Robinson helped the Wildcats post their best record (4-7) since 1973. Northwestern also tied a school record for takeaways with 31 in '86. He was recruited by and played as a freshman for current Vikings Head Coach Dennis Green, Northwestern's head coach from 1981-85, and current Vikings running backs coach Carl Hargrave, who was on Green's coaching staff at Northwestern.

A native of Minneapolis, MN (4/16/67), Jeffrey Randall Robinson was an honorable-mention All-America and a two-time All-Minneapolis Conference selection at North High School. He also was a two-time all-state pick in track and an all-city choice in basketball. A member of the National Honor Society in high school, Robinson was recognized by the Minneapolis Public School Athletic Department in '88.

Named one of the Outstanding College Students of America, Robinson earned a degree in organizational studies/business management at Northwestern. Since '91 he has served on the board of directors of the North Community YMCA. In 1995 and 1996 he has hosted a college prep basketball camp for the top 30 varsity players in the Twin Cities. He and wife Cassandra and have a daughter, Jassandra (11/5/97) and live in New Hope, MN.

Quintin Smith

AREA SCOUT

Quintin Smith enters his first season with the Vikings after spending the last five seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs. Smith will be an area scout with the Vikings where his main emphasis will be the lower West Coast and the Southwest area of the country.

For the Chiefs Smith evaluated college talent in the Midwest. During his five seasons with Kansas City the team made the playoffs three times, had four winning seasons and had a 51-29 (.638) regular season record.

Smith played for the Chicago Bears for two seasons (1990-91). In '90 he caught two passes for 20 yards as a rookie free agent out of Kansas. Smith spent the '91 season on injured reserve.

Upon leaving Kansas in '89, Smith was the fourth leading receiver in school history. Smith was an All-Big Eight selection as a senior when he had 50 catches for 898 yards and a school-record eight touchdowns.

Smith received his undergraduate ('90) and masters degree ('94) from Kansas.

A native of Houston, TX (8/17/68), Quintin Anton Smith attended Jack Yates High School in Houston. His high school won the Texas Class 5A Championship his senior season and was ranked second nationally. Smith's cousin Woody Green (1974-76) played for the Kansas City Chiefs under current Viking Director of Pro Personnel Paul Wiggin, who was the head coach at the time. Quintin and his wife Rhonda have a son, Grayson and reside in Houston, TX.

Scott Studwell

PLAYER PERSONNEL COORDINATOR

After establishing himself as one of the top players in team history during his 14 seasons (1977-90) at linebacker for the Minnesota Vikings, Scott Studwell enters his seventh year as the club's Player Personnel Coordinator. He retired from his playing career after the 1990 season then spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations before being named to his current post in '92.

Of the 25 players the team selected in the last three drafts, 22 are still with Minnesota and all 25 are still playing in the NFL. Of the 13 players still on the club selected prior to the 1999 draft, seven have started games at some point during their careers.

A member of the Vikings' 25th Anniversary All-Time Team, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as for solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has as many as 1,500 career tackles.

In addition Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. He also played in 12 playoffs contests, including NFC Championship Games following the '77 and '87 seasons.

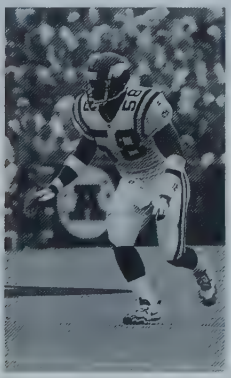
In '87 and '88 Studwell was voted to the Pro Bowl. In '89 he was a second-team All-NFC pick by United Press International. He also was Minnesota's recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award in '87.

After earning the starting middle linebacker job in '80, Studwell led the Vikings in tackles the next six seasons. He also was the team's leading tackler in '88 and '89. Studwell, who tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered three times ('82, '86, '88), finished his NFL career with 15 fumble recoveries and 11 interceptions.

Drafted by Minnesota in the ninth round from Illinois in '77, Studwell finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time tackler (342) behind Dick Butkus (374). In '76 Studwell recorded 177 tackles to surpass Illinois' season record, formerly held by Butkus. As a senior Studwell recorded 23 tackles against Purdue to tie the school's single-game record.

In '90 Studwell was named to Illinois' All-Century Team, joining Butkus and Ray Nitschke as the linebackers on that squad. Studwell earned second-team All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors in '76, and second-team all-conference mention in '75. Studwell also was the team's co-captain and co-MVP in '76, when he played in the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl.

A native of Evansville, IN. (8/27/54), John Scott Studwell starred at Evansville High School. He majored in commerce at Illinois. During his playing career, he sat on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Minneapolis. Scott and wife Jenny have two daughters, Jessie (2/27/86) and Samantha (9/17/87), and a son Jack (2/20/95).



The Viking personnel staff has earned a reputation for finding hidden talent, such as Pro Bowlers Ed McDaniel (58) and Jeff Christy (62). McDaniel was a 5th round draft choice and Christy was signed as a free agent.

What to Look for in 1999

- The Vikings making the playoffs for the 7th time in 8 seasons under head coach Dennis Green and the 20th time since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970. Only Dallas, with 21 appearances, has made the postseason more than Minnesota over the past 28 years.
- Randall McDaniel increasing his team record for consecutive All-Pro seasons. He enters the 1999 campaign with 10 straight All-Pro seasons.
- With a Pro Bowl appearance Randall McDaniel will extend his NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl games started to 11.
- Randall McDaniel extending his team-high streak of 162 straight starts, including playoffs. His last non-start came vs. Green Bay on October 15, 1989.
- Cris Carter moving up on the NFL's all-time list for receptions. He is currently 4th with 834 (3rd is Andre Reed with 889, 2nd is Art Monk with 940, and 1st is Jerry Rice with 1,139).
- Cris Carter gaining ground on the NFL's all-time list for touchdown receptions. He is currently 2nd with 101 touchdowns (1st is Jerry Rice with 163).
- John Randle reaching the 10-plus sack plateau for his 8th consecutive season, which will move him into sole possession of 2nd place on the NFL's all-time list for consecutive seasons with 10 or more sacks.
- John Randle moving up on the club's all-time list for sacks. He is currently 4th with 96.0 sacks (3rd is Alan Page with 108).
- Gary Anderson moving up on the NFL's all-time list for points scored. He is currently in 2nd with 1,845 points (1st is George Blanda with 2,002).
- Gary Anderson increasing his NFL record of 420 career field goals.
- Gary Anderson increasing his NFL record for consecutive field goals made. Anderson enters 1999 with a streak of 40 straight field goals, dating back to 1997.
- Robert Smith moving up on the club's all-time list for rushing yards. He is currently 5th with 4,282 yards (4th is Dave Osborn with 4,320 and 3rd is Ted Brown with 4,546).
- Jake Reed moving up on the club's all-time list for receptions. He is currently 6th with 342 receptions (5th is Sammy White with 393 and 4th is Ahmad Rashad with 400).
- Ed McDaniel moving up on the club's all-time list for sacks by a linebacker. He is currently 3rd with 15.5 (2nd is Fred McNeil with 16.5 and 1st is Matt Blair with 23).

Vikings Lore

FRANCHISE FOUNDED — Minnesota is granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami, FL. on Jan. 28, 1960. The team will begin play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P Skoglund, Ole Haugsrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the region that the team represents.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin is selected as the first head coach in franchise history. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960 running back Tommy Mason of Tulane is taken with the first overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were quarterback Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and running back Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select three players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30-of-their-38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were guard Grady Alderman from Detroit and running back Hugh McElhenny from San Francisco.

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the National Football League assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in that conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Minnesota Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD., on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN., on Sept. 10, 1961 in the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Minnesota Vikings defeat the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and four touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962 running back Hugh McElhenny and wide receiver Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

FIRST ALL-PRO — In 1963 running back Tommy Mason, who was the team's first ever draft choice, is the first Vikings player to earn All-Pro recognition. He is a consensus pick after rushing for 763 yards and 7 touchdowns on 166 carries (4.6 avg.).

FINKS HIRED — In September, 1964, Jim Finks is named the team's second general manager, succeeding Bert Rose, who resigned in June, 1964. Finks previously had served as general manager for Calgary of the Canadian Football League for seven years.

FIRST WINNING SEASON — Minnesota won its final three regular-season games in 1964 to achieve the first winning season in team history with an 8-5-1 record. The Vikings tied for second in the NFL Western Conference behind Baltimore.

MET EXPANDED — A new grandstand is constructed on the east side of Metropolitan Stadium that increases capacity from 41,200 to 47,200. The new seats were formally dedicated on Aug. 20, 1965, when Minnesota played Philadelphia in a preseason game.

NFL RE-ALIGNED — On Dec. 2, 1966 Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Green Bay were chosen to make up the newly-formed Central Division of the Western Conference of the NFL.

VAN BROCKLIN RESIGNS — After compiling a 29-51-4 record while leading the Vikings in their first six years of existence, Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin resigned in February, 1967. His best season was 1964, when he led the team to a tie for second place in the NFL Western Conference with an 8-5-1 record.

TARKENTON TRADED — On March 7, 1967 quarterback Fran Tarkenton is traded to the New York Giants for a first- and second-round choice in 1967, a first-round choice in '68 and a second-round choice in '69. With the picks Minnesota selected Clinton Jones and Bob Grim in '67, Ron Yary in '68 and Ed White in '69.

GRANT NAMED HEAD COACH — Bud Grant was named the second head coach in Vikings history on March 10, 1967. He came to Minnesota after leading the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to four Grey Cup Championships in 10 years as head coach.

FIRST DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 15, 1968 the Vikings defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-17, at Franklin Field then retired to the dressing room to listen to the Chicago-Green Bay game on the radio. Minnesota needed the Bears to lose to clinch the Vikings' first division title. Chicago tried to rally from a 28-10 fourth quarter deficit but eventually fell, 28-17.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME — On Dec. 22, 1968, in the first playoff game in franchise history, the Baltimore Colts defeated the Vikings, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Minnesota trailed 21-0 in the fourth quarter but a late rally fell short.

SECOND DIVISION TITLE — On Nov. 27, 1969 the Vikings shutout Detroit, 27-0, at Tiger Stadium to clinch the franchise's second division title. The victory over the Lions was the 10th of a 12-game win streak, the longest in the NFL in 35 years. Minnesota finished the season with the NFL's best regular-season record (12-2) of '69.

FIRST PLAYOFF WIN — On Dec. 27, 1969 in the first NFL playoff game in Minnesota, the Vikings came from behind to defeat the Los Angeles Rams, 23-20, in the Western Conference Championship Game. Minnesota overcame deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 20-14 in the fourth quarter for the franchise's first postseason win.

FIRST NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings defeated the Cleveland Browns, 27-7, in the NFL Championship Game on Jan. 4, 1970 at Metropolitan Stadium. Minnesota became the first modern NFL expansion team to win an NFL Championship Game. The Vikings dominated the game, leading 27-0 before the Browns scored with 1:24 left in the game.

FIRST SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 11, 1970 the Vikings lost to Kansas City, 23-7, in Super Bowl IV at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans. Not only was the game the first Super Bowl in franchise history, but it was the first Super Bowl played by a modern expansion team.

THIRD DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 5, 1970, the Vikings defeated the Chicago Bears, 16-13, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their third straight division title. Minnesota hosted San Francisco in a divisional playoff game but lost, 17-14. For the second consecutive season, the Vikings had the league's best regular-season record with a 12-2 mark.

FOURTH DIVISION TITLE -- On Dec. 11, 1971 the Vikings defeated the Detroit Lions, 29-10, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their fourth straight division title. Minnesota finished the year with an 11-3 mark, which tied Dallas for the league's best record in '71. The Vikings lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 20-12, in a divisional playoff game at Metropolitan Stadium.

PAGE NAMED NFL'S MVP — In 1971 Alan Page became the first defensive player to be named the Most Valuable Player of the National Football League by the Associated Press. Page headed a Vikings defense that held opponents to fewer than 10 points a game to lead the league in scoring defense for the third consecutive year.

VIKINGS RE-ACQUIRE TARKENTON — In 1972 the Vikings traded Norm Snead, Bob Grim, Vince Clements, a first-round choice in '72, and a first-round choice in '73 to the New York Giants for Fran Tarkenton. The Giants selected Larry Jacobson in '72 and Brad Van Pelt in '73.

BOYER DIES — In 1972 E. William Boyer passed away. He was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota. Boyer was president of the Vikings from 1960-64 and sat on the Board of Directors for the first 12 years of the team's existence. He is replaced on the team's Board of Directors by his son-in-law Jack Steele.

FIFTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings began the '73 season with nine straight victories and clinched the NFC Central championship before they even lost a game. Minnesota clinched the division crown by defeating Detroit, 28-7, at Metropolitan Stadium on Nov. 11, 1973. The Vikings finished with a 12-2 mark, which tied for the best record in the league that year.

SECOND SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 13, 1974 the Vikings played in the second Super Bowl in franchise history against the Miami Dolphins at Rice Stadium in Houston, TX. The Dolphins prevailed, 27-10. Minnesota earned the trip to Super Bowl VIII by defeating Dallas, 27-10, in the NFC Championship Game at Texas Stadium on Dec. 30, 1973.

FINKS RESIGNS — After the 1973 season, Executive Vice President and General Manager Jim Finks resigned. Under Finks, who was hired in 1964, the Vikings won five division titles and appeared in two Super Bowls. He also hired Bud Grant as head coach in '67.

SIXTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 1, 1974 the Vikings clinched the NFC Central crown by defeating the New Orleans Saints, 29-9, at Metropolitan Stadium, while the Green Bay Packers lost, 36-14, at Philadelphia. Minnesota tied for the best record in the NFC with a 10-4 mark.

THIRD SUPER BOWL — The Vikings played in their second straight Super Bowl, losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 16-6, at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans on Jan. 12, 1975. Minnesota earned a trip to Super Bowl IX by defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 14-10, at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 29, 1974.

FRONT OFFICE CHANGES — In the spring of 1975, Max Winter, one of the team's founders and its president since 1965, takes over active management of the franchise. In addition, Mike Lynn, who was hired as an assistant to the president on Aug. 15, 1974, is named the team's general manager.

SEVENTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings clinch their third straight NFC Central title and their seventh division championship in eight years on Thanksgiving Day on Nov. 27, 1975, when the Detroit Lions lost to the Los Angeles Rams, 20-0. Minnesota won 10 consecutive games to start the season and finished the year with the best record (12-2) in the NFL. The Vikings were upset, 17-14, in the divisional playoffs at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 28, 1975, when the Dallas Cowboys scored on a last minute 50-yard touchdown pass.

TARKENTON NAMED LEAGUE MVP — Quarterback Fran Tarkenton is named the NFL's Most Valuable Player for 1975 after leading the Vikings to the league's best record (12-2). He led the NFC and finished second in the NFL in passing with a 91.7 rating. He completed 273-of-425 passes for 2,994 yards with 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions.

HAUGSRUD DIES — Ole Haugsrud passed away in March, 1976. He was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota. Haugsrud sat on the Board of Directors for 16 years of the team's existence. He is replaced on the team's Board of Directors by his widow Margaret Haugsrud.

EIGHTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings clinched their fourth consecutive NFC Central championship and their eighth division title in nine years by defeating the Green Bay Packers, 17-10, at Milwaukee County Stadium on Nov. 21, 1976. Minnesota finished the season with an 11-2-1 record, the best in the NFC in '76.

FOURTH SUPER BOWL — The Vikings played in their third Super Bowl in four years against the Oakland Raiders at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, CA. on Jan. 9, 1977. Minnesota lost, 32-14. The Vikings earned a trip to Super Bowl XI by defeating the Los Angeles Rams, 24-13, at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 26, 1976 in what ended up being the last Vikings playoff game at the Met.

KAPLAN NAMED TO BOARD -- In 1977 team attorney Sheldon Kaplan is named to the Vikings Board of Directors. He replaces Bernard H. Ridder, Jr., who was one of the team's five founders.

NINTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings clinched the NFC Central crown on the season's final weekend by defeating the Detroit Lions, 30-21, at the Pontiac Silverdome on Dec. 17, 1977. Minnesota wrapped up its fifth straight NFC Central title and its ninth division championship in 10 seasons.

FOURTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — On Jan. 1, 1978 the Vikings played in their fourth NFC Championship Game in five years against the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. Minnesota lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champions, 23-6.

CHANGES ON BOARD — John Skoglund and Vikings General Manager Mike Lynn are named to the team's Board of Directors replacing Margaret Haugsrud and H.P. Skoglund, who was one of the team's founders. Haugsrud joined the board in 1976, replacing her husband Ole, who passed away.

TENTH DIVISION TITLE — Despite losing in the regular-season finale to the Oakland Raiders, 27-20, on Dec. 17, 1978 at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, the Vikings captured the NFC Central title when the Green Bay Packers, who played at the same time as Minnesota, lost to the Los Angeles Rams, 31-14, at the L.A. Coliseum. It was the Vikings' sixth straight NFC Central crown and their 10th division championship in 11 years.

METRODOME GROUND BREAKING — In December, 1979, ground is broken for construction of the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. The stadium, which will house both the Vikings and Twins, is scheduled to open in April, 1982.

ELEVENTH DIVISION TITLE -- Minnesota clinched its seventh NFC Central title in eight years by defeating the Cleveland Browns, 28-23, at Metropolitan Stadium on Dec. 14, 1980. It also was the Vikings' 11th division title in 13 seasons. Minnesota lost to the eventual NFC Champion Philadelphia Eagles, 31-16, at Veterans Stadium on Jan. 3, 1981 in the divisional playoffs.

WINTER PARK OPENS — On May 15, 1981 the Vikings moved into a new facility in Eden Prairie that houses the team's offices, locker room and practice fields. The complex was named "Winter Park" after Max Winter, one of the Vikings founders who served as the team's president from 1965-87.

FAREWELL MET — On Dec. 20, 1981 the Vikings hosted the Kansas City Chiefs in Minnesota's final game at Metropolitan Stadium. The Vikings lost, 10-6. The final points at the stadium were scored on a 33-yard field goal by Minnesota kicker Rick Danmeier. The last Vikings touchdown at Metropolitan Stadium was scored on a six-yard run by Ted Brown against Green Bay on Nov. 29, 1981.

METRODOME OPENS — The Vikings played their first game at the Metrodome in a preseason matchup against Seattle on Aug. 21, 1982. Minnesota prevailed, 7-3. The first touchdown in the new facility was scored by Joe Senser on an 11-yard pass from Tommy Kramer. The first regular-season game in the Metrodome was the 1982 opener on September 12, when the Vikings defeated Tampa Bay, 17-10. Rickey Young scored the first regular-season touchdown in the facility on a three-yard run in the second quarter.

TWELFTH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — In a strike-shortened nine-game 1982 season, the Vikings win 3-of-their-last-4 regular-season games to earn a postseason berth. It was the eighth time in nine years and the 12th time in 14 seasons that Minnesota qualified for the playoffs.

FIRST DOME PLAYOFF GAME — On Jan. 9, 1983 the Vikings defeated Atlanta, 30-24, in a first-round game that was the first playoff matchup in the Metrodome. Minnesota lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins, 21-7, in the NFC semifinals at RFK Stadium on Jan. 15, 1983.

GRANT RETIRES — On Jan. 27, 1984 Bud Grant resigned as head coach of the Vikings. In 17 seasons Grant led Minnesota to 12 playoff appearances, 11 division titles and four Super Bowls. His career regular-season record was 151-87-5 (.632).

STECKEL HIRED -- Les Steckel, who was an offensive assistant with the Vikings for five seasons, was named the third head coach in franchise history on Jan. 29, 1984. Steckel, who came to the Vikings in 1979 after working as an assistant with the San Francisco 49ers, was the youngest head coach in the NFL in '84 at age 38.

GRANT RE-HIRED — On Dec. 18, 1984 Bud Grant is re-hired as the head coach of the Vikings. He replaced Les Steckel who guided the team in 1984 after Grant retired following the '83 season.

GRANT RE-RETIRES — Jan. 6, 1986 following the 1985 season, Bud Grant retired as head coach of the Vikings. He originally retired after the 1983 season but returned to coach the team in '85. At the time of his retirement he was the sixth winningest coach in NFL history with 168 career wins, including playoffs. In 18 seasons he led the Vikings to a 158-96-5 regular-season record.

BURNS HIRED — Longtime Vikings assistant coach Jerry Burns is named the fourth head coach in team history on Jan. 7, 1986. He served as the Vikings offensive coordinator from 1968-85, when the team won 11 division titles and played in four Super Bowls.

TARKENTON ENSHRINED — On Aug. 2, 1986 Fran Tarkenton became the first player who spent the majority of his career with the Vikings to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He retired following the 1978 season with NFL career records for passing yards (47,003), completions (3,686) and touchdown passes (342). He led the Vikings to six NFC Central titles, four NFC Championship Games and three Super Bowls.

THIRTEENTH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — Despite a strike replacement unit that saddled the Vikings with three losses, the team made the playoffs as a wild-card entrant with an 8-7 record in 1987. It was the team's first postseason appearance under Jerry Burns, who was in his second season as the Vikings head coach.

FIFTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings played the Washington Redskins in the NFC Championship Game on Jan. 17, 1988 at RFK Stadium. Trailing 17-10, the Vikings drove to the Redskins' 6 yd. line with a little over a minute left in the game but failed to get the ball into the end zone. Minnesota upset New Orleans, 44-10, at the Superdome and San Francisco, 36-24, at Candlestick Park in the first two rounds of the playoffs to earn a trip to the conference title game.

BOARD ADDS MEMBERS – Four people were added to the Vikings Board of Directors in 1988. Joining Max Winter, John Skoglund, Jack Steele, Sheldon Kaplan and Mike Lynn were Wheelock Whitney, Jaye Dyer, Irwin Jacobs and Carl Pohlad.

PAGE ENSHRINED — On July 30, 1988 Alan Page becomes the second player who spent the majority of his career with the Vikings to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Drafted by Minnesota in the first round in 1967, Page made the Pro Bowl nine times. In 1971 he became the first defensive player to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by Associated Press. Page played a big role on teams that won 10 NFC Central titles and played in four Super Bowls.

FOURTEENTH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — The Vikings won 6-of-their-last-7 games in 1988 to earn a wild-card berth into the playoffs. Minnesota finished with an 11-5 record then defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 28-17, on December 26 in a first-round playoff game at the Metrodome. The Vikings were eliminated from the playoffs the following week by eventual Super Bowl Champion San Francisco, 34-9, at Candlestick Park.

REMAINING FOUNDER LEAVES BOARD — In 1989 Max Winter, who was the last of the original five Vikings' founders on the team's Board of Directors, left the board. He also served as the team's president from 1965-87. Winter is replaced on the board by Gerald Schwaibach.

WALKER ACQUIRED — On Oct. 12, 1989 the Vikings acquired Herschel Walker from Dallas for Issiac Holt, David Howard, Darrin Nelson, Jesse Solomon, Alex Stewart, a first-round choice in 1992, conditional first-round choices in 1990 and 1991, conditional second-round choices in 1990, 1991 and 1992, and a conditional third-round choice in 1992. The final result of the trade gave the Vikings Walker, a third (Mike Jones), fifth (Reggie Thornton) and 10th-round choice (Pat Newman) in 1990 and a third-round choice in 1991 (Jake Reed), while Dallas received all five players, a first, second and sixth-round choice in 1990, a first and second-round choice in 1991 and a first, second and third-round choice in 1992. The trade was the largest in NFL history.

TWELFTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings captured their twelfth division title since 1968 by defeating the Cincinnati Bengals, 29-21, at the Metrodome in a Monday night game on Christmas Day in 1989. It also was Minnesota's 15th postseason appearance in the past 22 years. The Vikings finished the season with a 10-6 record but lost to eventual Super Bowl Champion San Francisco, 41-13, at Candlestick Park in the divisional playoffs on Jan. 6, 1990.

HEADRICK NAMED TEAM PRESIDENT — On Jan. 1, 1991 Roger Headrick became president and Chief Executive Officer of the Vikings. He replaced Mike Lynn as the person in charge of day-to-day operations of the club. In addition Headrick and Philip Maas replaced Jack Steele and Sheldon Kaplan on the board of directors.

BURNS RETIRES — On Dec. 3, 1991, Jerry Burns announced his retirement. In six seasons as head coach of the Vikings, Burns compiled a career record of 52-43 (.547). He also led Minnesota to three playoff appearances, including a division title and an NFC Championship Game.

CHANGES ON BOARD — On Dec. 16, 1991 the team's ownership structure was reorgnized. Irwin Jacobs and Carl Pohlad sold their shares to an ownership group consisting of Vikings President and CEO Roger Headrick, John Skoglund, Jaye Dyer, Philip Maas, Mike Lynn, Wheelock Whitney, James Binger, Bud Grossman, Elizabeth MacMillan and Carol Sperry.

GREEN NAMED HEAD COACH — On Jan. 10, 1992 Dennis Green is named the fifth head coach in team history. He came to Minnesota after turning around a struggling Stanford University football program as head coach there from 1989-91.

THIRTEENTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 20, 1992 the Vikings defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers, 6-3, at Three Rivers Stadium to earn the franchise's 13th division title. It also was Minnesota's 16th playoff season since 1968. Dennis Green also posted the most victories (11) and the first division title by a first-year head coach in team history. The Vikings lost to the defending Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins, 24-7, in a first round playoff game at the Metrodome on Jan. 2, 1993.

SEVENTEENTH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — For the first time since 1974, the Vikings won their final three regular-season games to earn a wild-card berth into the playoffs. It was the team's 17th postseason appearance since 1968. Minnesota lost to the New York Giants, 17-10, in a chilly, windy Giants Stadium in a first-round playoff game on Jan. 9, 1994.

MOON ACQUIRED — On April 14, 1994 the Vikings traded a fourth-round draft choice in 1994 and a third-round draft choice in 1995 to the Houston Oilers for quarterback Warren Moon, who has thrown for more yardage and touchdowns as a professional than any other player. He set team season records for passing yards (4,264) in '94 and for completions (377) and touchdown passes (33) in '95.

GRANT ENSHRINED — On July 30, 1994 Bud Grant is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He coached the Vikings from 1967-83 then again in '85. During his tenure Minnesota made the playoffs 12 times, won 11 division titles and played in four Super Bowls. Grant also is the first person to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football League Hall of Fame.

FOURTEENTH DIVISION TITLE — On the final day of the 1994 regular season, the Vikings defeat the San Francisco 49ers, 21-14, in a Monday night game to earn their second NFC Central title in three seasons and their third straight playoff berth. It also was Minnesota's 14th division title and 18th postseason appearance since 1968. Dennis Green became only the seventh person in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first three seasons as an NFL head coach.

FINKS ENSHRINED — Former Vikings General Manager Jim Finks is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 25, 1995. During his decade with Minnesota, the team won five division titles and appeared in two Super Bowls.

WINTER PASSES AWAY — Max Winter, who served as the owner and President of the Minnesota Vikings from 1965-87, passed away on July 26, 1996. He also was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota and was a big factor in the building of the Metrodome and attracting Super Bowl XXVI to the Twin Cities.

NINETEENTH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — On Dec. 15, 1996 the Vikings defeat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 21-10, in the Metrodome. After a Washington loss to Arizona later that day, Minnesota is guaranteed a playoff berth for the 19th time since 1968 and the fourth time in five seasons under Dennis Green. The Vikings lost, 40-15, to the defending Super Bowl Champion Dallas Cowboys in a first-round playoff game at Texas Stadium on Dec. 28, 1996.

TWENTIETH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — On Dec. 21, 1997 the Vikings beat the Indianapolis Colts in the regular season finale to reach the playoffs for the 20th in team history and the fifth time in six seasons under Dennis Green. The Vikings went on the road and came back from 16 points down to defeat the New York Giants 23-22 at the Meadowlands on Dec. 27, 1997. It was the biggest comeback win in team playoff history and the fifth biggest postseason comeback in NFL history. The following week the Vikings lost, 38-22, to the San Francisco 49ers in the Divisional Playoffs on Jan. 3, 1998.

KRAUSE ENSHRINED — On August 1, 1998 Paul Krause is inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Krause played free safety with the Vikings from 1968-79 and the Washington Redskins from 1964-67. He holds the NFL record for career interceptions with 81. Krause was selected to eight Pro Bowls in his 15-year career.

BOARD AGREES TO SELL — On July 3, 1998 The Minnesota Vikings 10 owners voted unanimously to accept the bid of B.J. "Red" McCombs to purchase the Vikings organization.

NFL APPROVES McCOMBS — On July 28, 1998 the NFL owners unanimously approved Red McComb's purchase of the Minnesota Vikings, finalizing the change of ownership from the 10 previous owners to sole ownership by McCombs.

WOODS NAMED TEAM PRESIDENT — On August 20, 1998 Gary Woods became President and Chief Executive Officer of the Vikings. He replaced Roger Headrick as the person responsible for day-to-day operations of the franchise.

GREEN GRANTED CONTRACT EXTENSION — Head Coach Dennis Green received a three-year contract extension on September 5, the day before the 1998 regular-season opener vs. Tampa Bay. The extension keeps Green with Minnesota through the 2001 season. Named head coach in January 1992, Green has the second-longest tenure among the four head coaches in Viking history.

CONNOLLY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — Long-time football executive Tim Connolly joins the Vikings on October 26 as Minnesota's Executive Vice President and General Manager. Connolly is the first General Manager the Vikings have had since Mike Lynn in 1991.

VIKINGS DELIVER BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY — The Vikings won their 15th NFC Central Division title and became only the third team in NFL history to go 15-1 through the regular season with their 26-16 win at Tennessee in the regular-season finale. The Vikings also established a new NFL scoring record with 556 points, breaking the old mark of 541 set by the 1983 Washington Redskins.

SIXTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings hosted Atlanta in the sixth NFC Championship game in franchise history with a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII on the line. The two teams played to a 27-27 deadlock during regulation, forcing the game into overtime where the Falcons claimed a 30-27 win. It was the first NFC Championship game played in the Metrodome.

Homes of the Vikings

Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 39-year history. Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota and the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

■ On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the L.A. Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over the next 21 years the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. December 20, 1981 marked the last game ever played at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year. ■ The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 64,152. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens, 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings, 32 concession stands and 32 restrooms. In 17 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have compiled a 101-56 record, which includes a 4-4 mark in the playoffs. ■ The 1999 season marks the Vikings' 18th campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. ■ The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, 1992 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament and the 1998 NFC Championship Game.

Viking Children's Fund

While there have been many changes in the Vikings since our inception in 1961, one thing has remained constant and that's the support the organization has given to the community. We are all proud of the dynamic growth and development of our Viking Children's Fund. Its mission is to rally the resources of the Vikings, the corporate community and our fans in support of the many needs of children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest. Since 1978 over $3.9 million has been raised. Much of it has been allocated to research into childhood diseases at the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics.

In 1998 the Minnesota Viking Children's Fund achieved the highest grant level in history by distributing over $500,000. Most of that record is attributed to the strong dedication of coaches, players and staff. In today's world, professional athletes have many options on their free time. The Vikings believe it's significant that so many Viking players choose to be out in the community making a difference.

Through the Children's Fund and our other community efforts, the Vikings will continue to weave themselves into the fabric of life throughout this great state of Minnesota. On the following pages you'll learn about all the programs the Viking family supports. The Vikings are proud of these accomplishments and proud to be the "Minnesota" Vikings.

Minnesota Vikings Radio Network

WCCO-AM (830) serves as the flagship station for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in five states. Dan Rowe, who enters his ninth season broadcasting Vikings games, will handle the play-by-play. Rowe joined the club full time in 1996 to work with the team's radio affiliates. Former Vikings tight end Stu Voigt (1970-80) joined the club as the color analyst in 1997.

Below is a list of affiliates on the network.

Big Taste for The Big Game.

Kick-Off Cheese Spread

Recipe 1

Preparation Time: 10 minutes; Chilling Time: 2 hours

4 cups (16 oz.) Sargento ChefStyle Shredded Cheddar Cheese
1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened
2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
1 cup beer (not dark)
2 tablespoons chopped fresh chives or parsley (optional)

1. In food processor fitted with steel blade,* combine cheese, butter, mustard and pepper. Process until cheese is finely chopped
2. Heat beer to boiling. With processor running, slowly pour hot beer into cheese mixture. Continue processing about 30 seconds or until fairly smooth. Transfer to serving bowl; chill until firm, at least 2 hours. Let stand at room temperature 1 hour before serving. Sprinkle with chives, if desired and serve with crackers, pretzel rods and assorted crisp vegetables.

3 cups.

*To prepare spread with an electric mixer, combine butter, mustard and pepper in a large mixing bowl. Beat at medium speed until mixture is combined. Add cheese to bowl; slowly pour in boiling beer while mixing at medium speed. Continue mixing 1 minute or until cheese is finely chopped. Proceed as recipe directs.

Make ahead tip: Spread may be prepared up to three days in advance. Cover and refrigerate until an hour before serving.

Halftime Pepperoni Pizza Soup

Recipe 2

Preparation Time: 10 minutes; Cooking Time: 9 minutes

2 cans (14-1/2 oz. each) chunky pasta-style stewed tomatoes, undrained
1-1/2 cups pizza sauce
2 cans (14-1/4 oz. each) condensed chicken broth
4 cups sliced zucchini
2 large red bell peppers, coarsely chopped
2 cans (2-1/4 oz. each) sliced ripe olives, drained
28 slices pepperoni
3 cups (12 oz.) Sargento Fancy Shredded Pizza Double Cheese
Fresh Basil (optional)

1. In large saucepan, combine tomatoes, pizza sauce, chicken broth, zucchini and red pepper. Heat to boil; reduce heat, simmer uncovered 6 to 8 minutes or until vegetables are crisp-tender. Add olives and pepperoni; simmer 1 minute.
2. Ladle soup into soup bowls. Sprinkle evenly with cheese. Garnish with basil.

8 servings.

Make ahead tip: Zucchini may be sliced and red pepper chopped, covered and refrigerated up to 1 day before preparing the soup.
